School Board Sets Policies; Counselors Provide Student Aid

Mr. Miller, principal, and Mr. Donnenwirth, superintendent, united their efforts to make Wynford a better school.

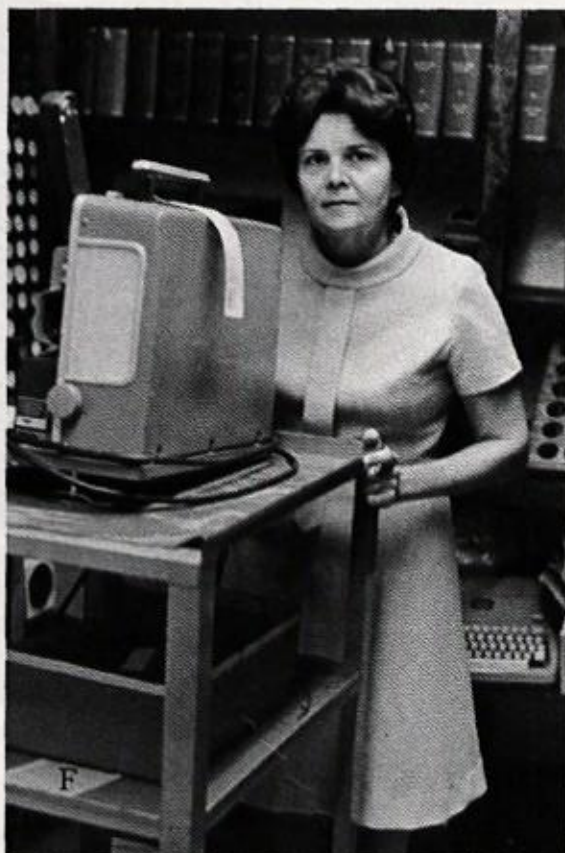

The school board set up many new policies this year, including crowd control for basketball games.

The guidance officers gave much aid to students; Mrs. Niese started a Candy Striper program this year.

Mrs. Schrader provided special training needed to guide her pupils to becoming responsible citizens.

Mrs. NOBLET kept the library orderly and she was always willing to assist students in finding needed library materials.

English — Describing Ideas; Civics — Applying Ideas

Throughout the year the language students learned many new techniques. They were very busy learning vocabulary to better express themselves.

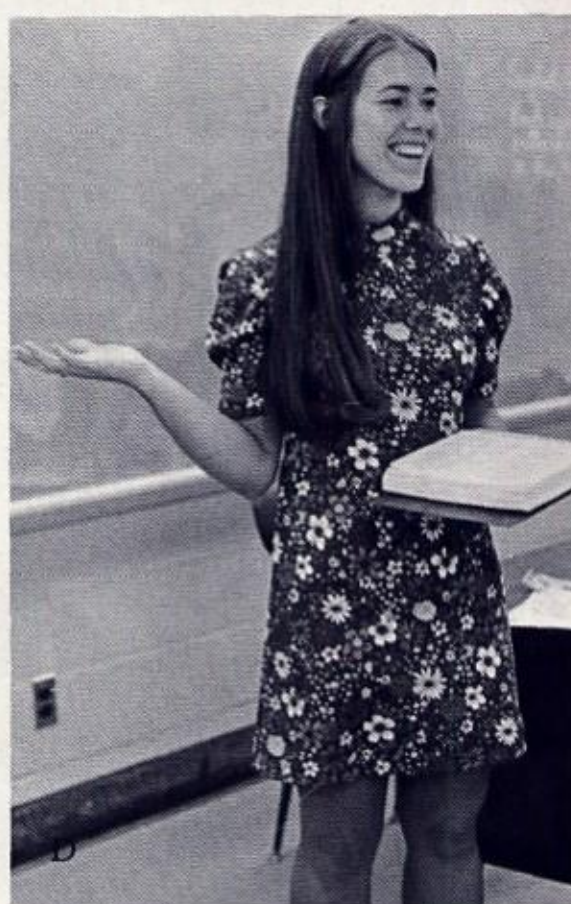

The speech classes expressed themselves freely through the Voice of Democracy Contest in which the students told of their responsibility to freedom.

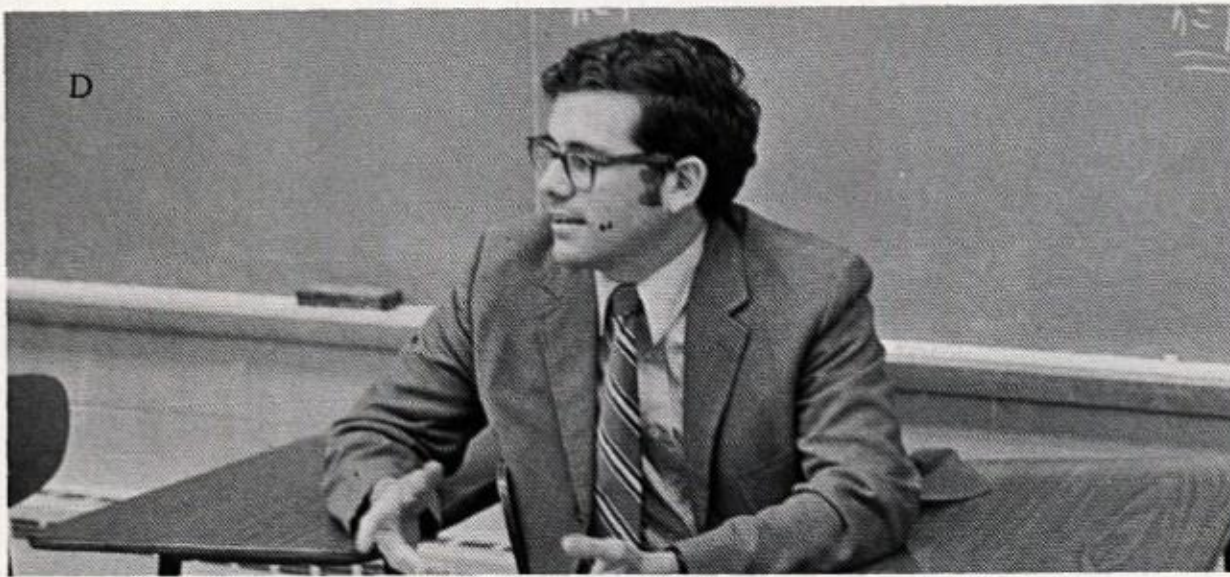

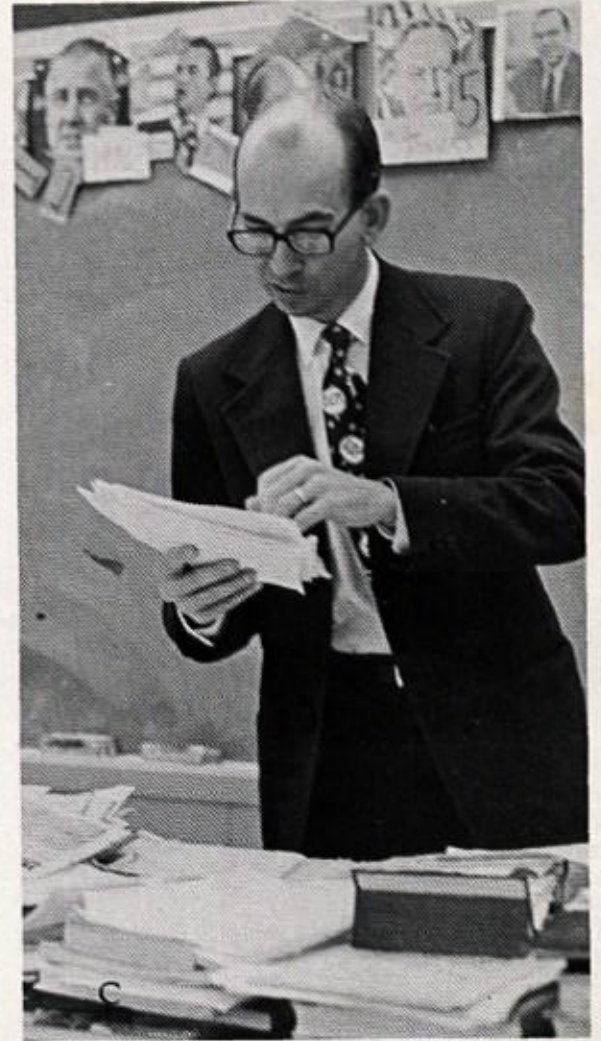

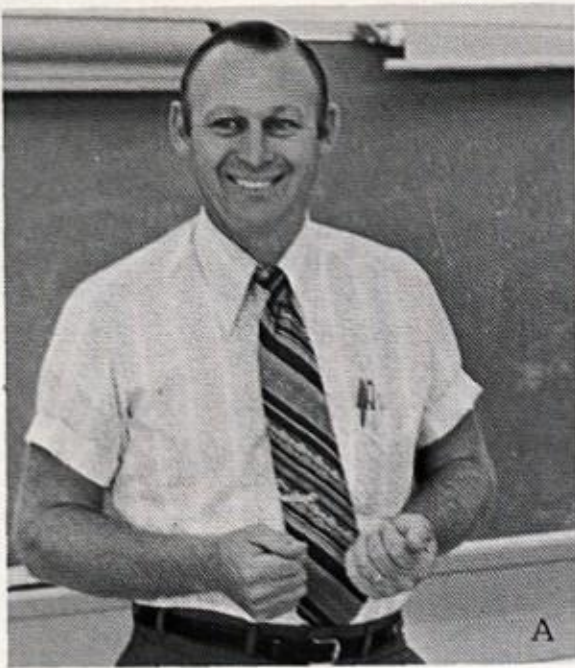

Through world history and American history the students were able to link the past and the present. The students were able to get a shining glimpse of what lies in the future.

American government brought the seniors closer to their local, state, and federal governments.

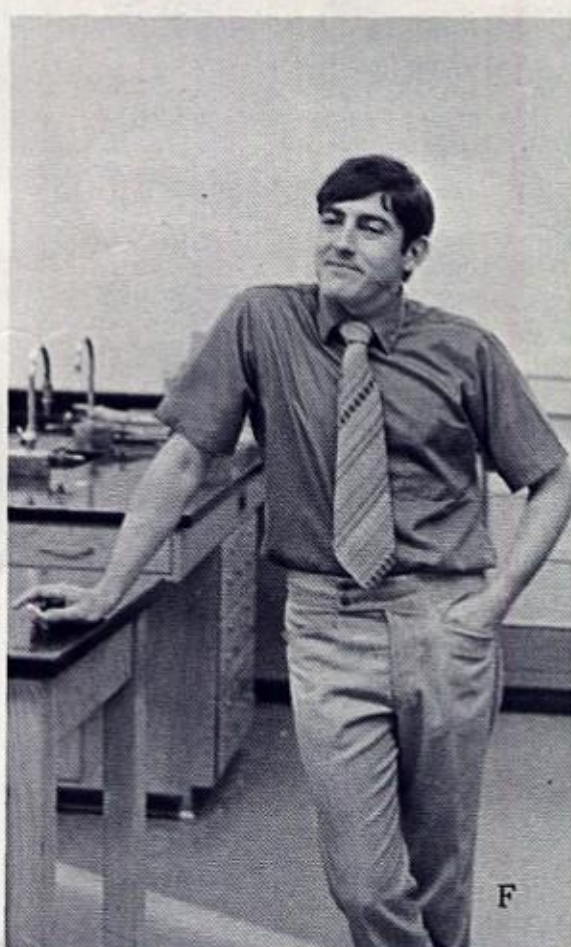

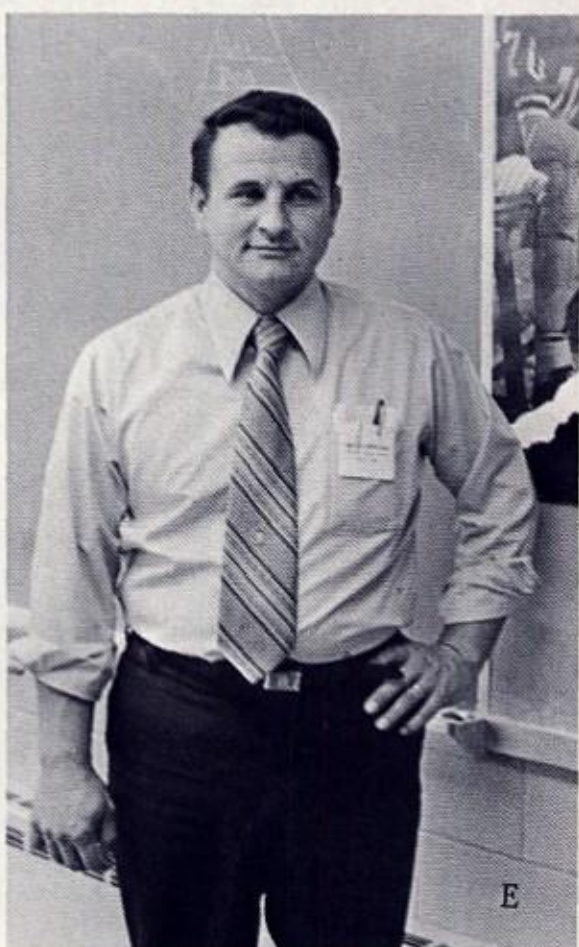

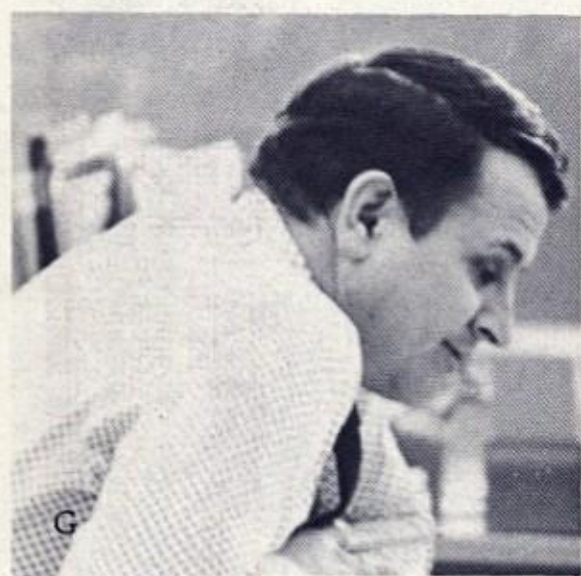

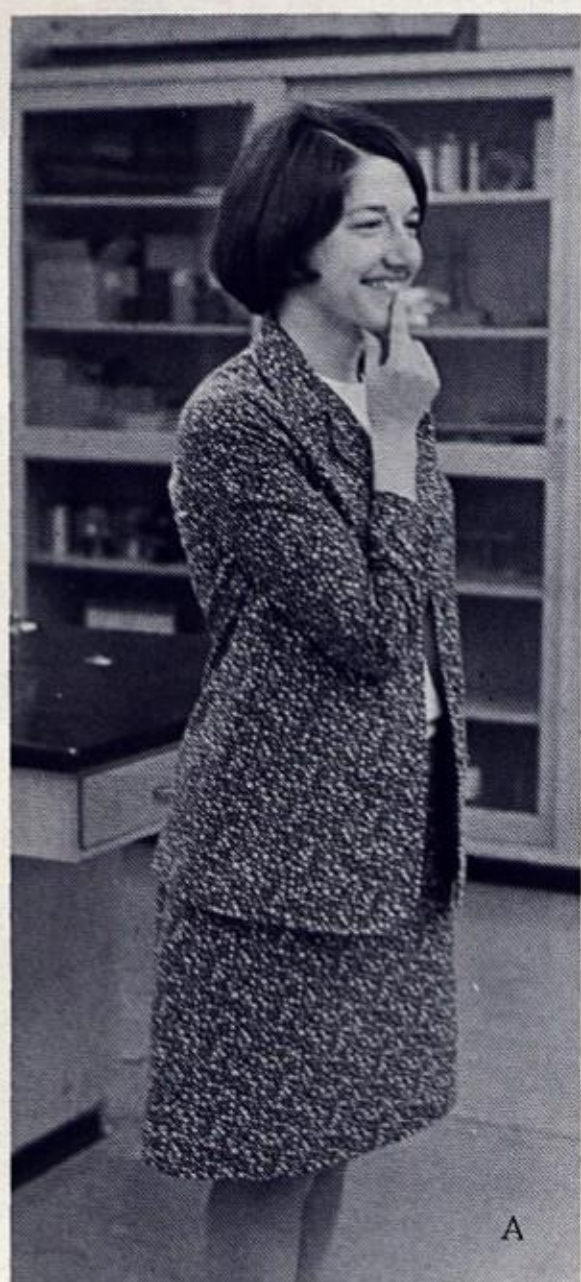

A: MR. WILLIAM MARKEY - Junior English. B: MRS. FRANCES SHAFFER - Freshman, Senior English, Speech. C: The fine art of tennis is demonstrated by Mrs. Shaffer. D: MRS. JANICE BUHS - Sophomore English. E: MR. LARRY BORLAND - Spanish I, II, III, Freshman English.

ROTHHAAR concentrates on proving a theorem.

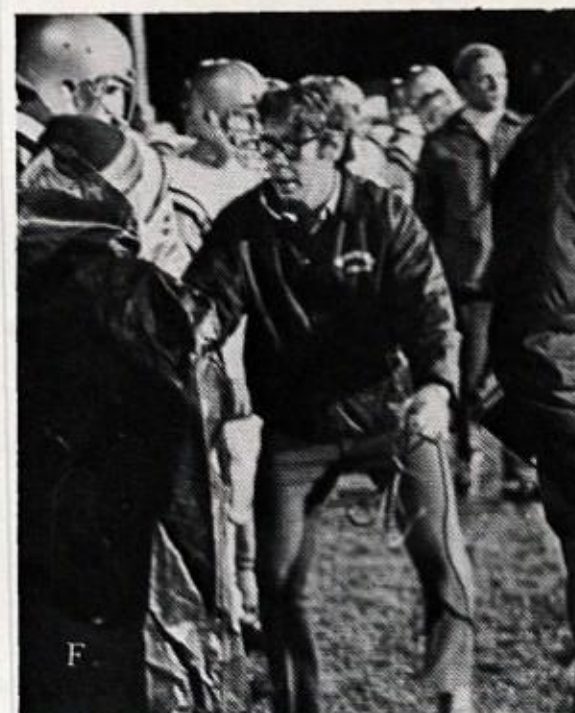

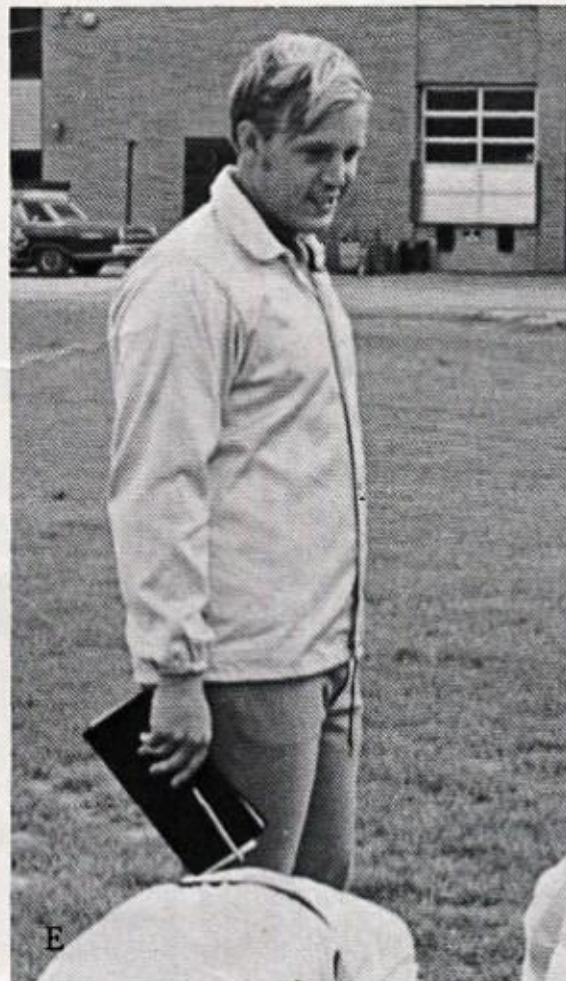

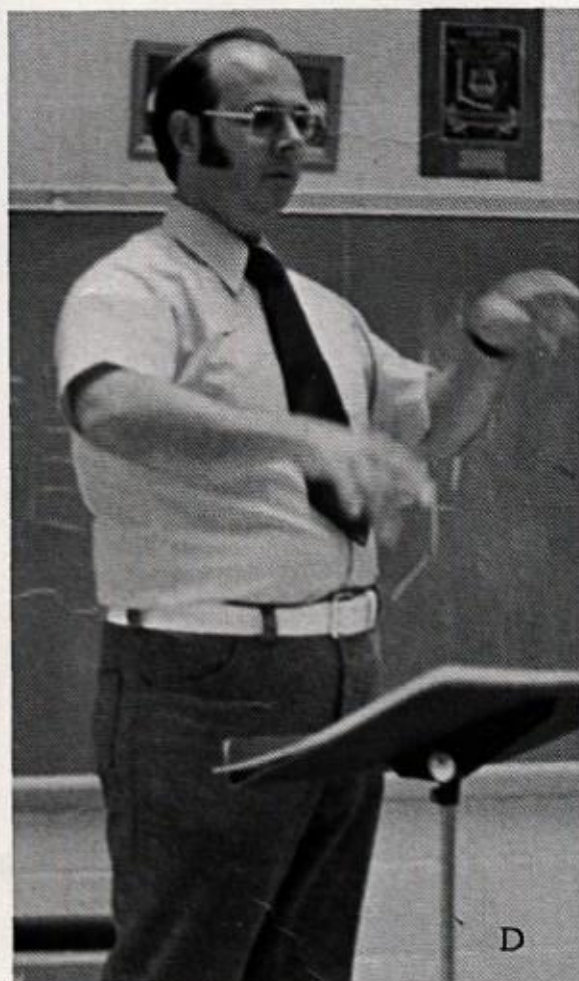

Inquire thru Math, Science; Express within Arts

Mr. Rothhaar and Miss Hartschuh helped the students of general math, Algebra I, II, geometry, and advanced math to solve many problems.

The field of music gave students a better understanding of the world around them. Once again students were encouraged to use their talents in preparing science projects.

Music, art, and physical education offered each student a break from mental strain of classwork.

A: MRS. SUE ROTHERMEL - Art I, II, II, Art Fundamentals. B: MR. JOHN RAYMALEY - Vocal Music. C: MRS. DEBBIE TERWILLIGER - Girls' Physical Education, Health. D: MR. ARVINE KINDINGER - Instrumental Music. E: MR. JOHN TERWILLIGER - Boys' Physical Education, Business Math. F: Last minute instructions given by Coach Raymaley.

Students in Vocational, Business Education Trained

The vocational courses offered students assistance in preparing themselves for the business world.

The commercial courses prepared students for various occupations.

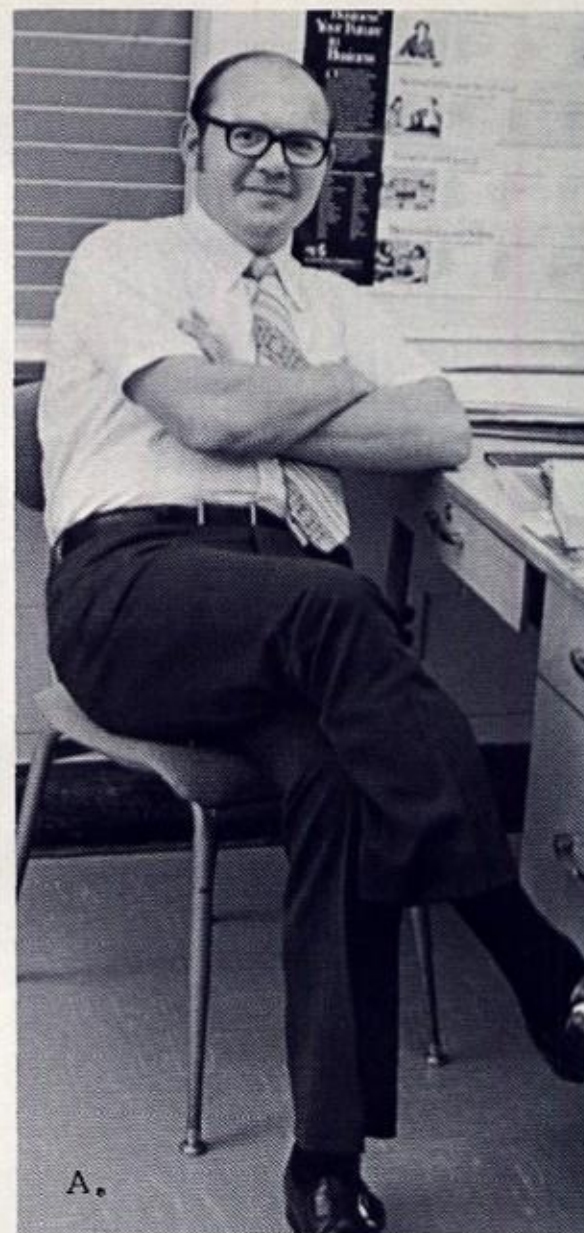

The Junior and Senior I.O.E. classes worked in an office setting as an actual company.

The students enrolled in vocational agriculture explored a wide range of skills, relating to every aspect of the agriculture field. An opportunity for part time employment was offered.

The industrial arts department trained students in skills that are used in today's shops.

Many avenues of employment were opened through mechanical drawing and motor mechanics courses.

The staff was helpful in the daily routine of school

The cooks prepared lunches that Mrs. Dickey planned for the students and faculty. Two different lines were established in the cafeteria to give more selection.

The janitors kept the school clean and in order. They were involved in many group clean-up projects and the art classes' redecoration project.

Roya'le Dedicates Annual to Dedicated Librarian

Through the four years at Wynford High School, the class of 1973 have spent many hours in the library.

As freshmen, the students passed idle time reading magazines, or loudly talking in the library.

As sophomores, the English classes were instructed in the use of the library and proper research skills. This knowledge was placed on a shelf, and the class continued to complain about the seating chart and suspended library passes.

Term papers were assigned during the third year at W.H.S. The previously learned research knowledge was temporarily removed from the shelf for practical application and pleas for help reached the ears of the librarian, Mrs.

Noblet.

Assignments increased rapidly for the seniors. There were science projects, book reports, biology critiques, class presentations, and term papers in four classes. Always ready with a list of subjects, newspaper clippings, and pamphlets was Mrs. Noblet.

As school librarian, Mrs. Noblet has been completely involved in duties, yet she has made time to direct and produce the Veteran's Day assembly, organize a Librarians' Club, and serve as senior class advisor.

In return for her dedication to the students of the class of 1973, the ROYALE dedicates this volume to Mrs. Sylvia Noblet.

Seniors Reach the Top; Assume Their Positions of Leadership

The 124-member senior class has completed their required twelve years of education - and what a hectic twelve years they were!

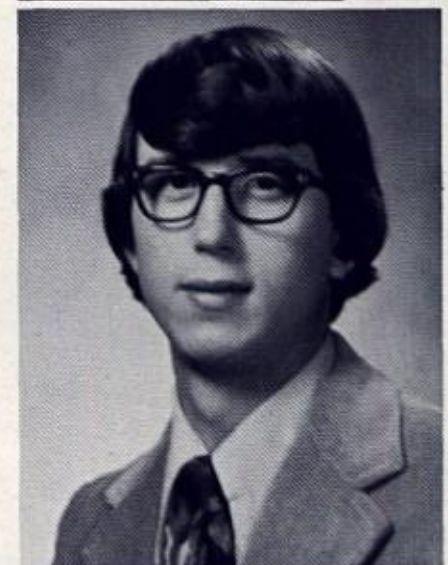

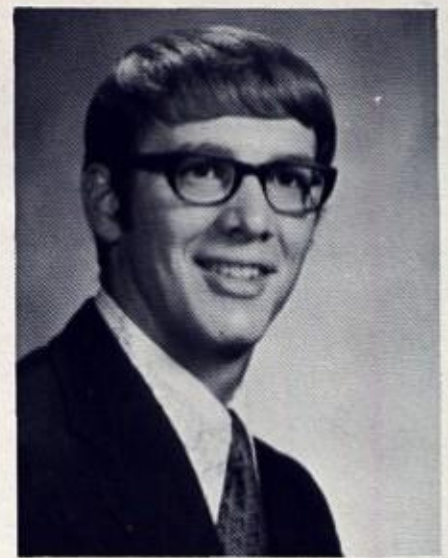

A new tradition was started this year for graduation. The Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises were held in a combined service on May 27, 1973. That day will always remain as a day of fulfillment in their lives.

Through the last four years, the Class of 1973 stayed close together to make a success of the many projects they have undertaken. The class can be very proud of the many honors brought to it through much hard work and determination.

Some members of the class will be going on to further their education, while others will get jobs or get married. Whatever they do, we wish them good luck in the future.

The Class of 1973 will always remember the great fun, ingenious pranks, and the many exciting experiences at Wynford High School.

Seniors End Days at Wynford, Continue Journey Through Life

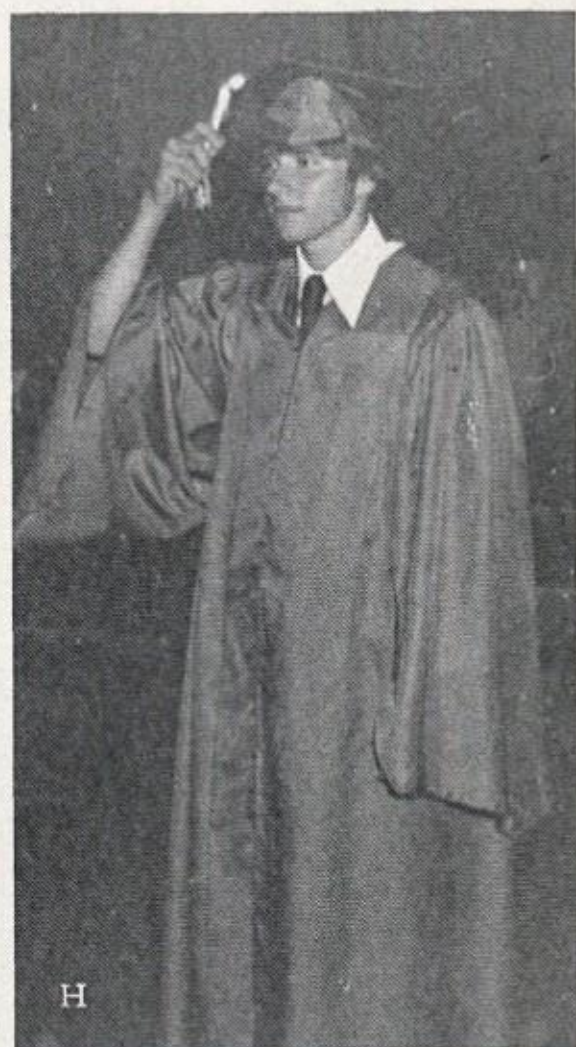

For the first time at Wynford, the graduating class of 1973 chose to hold Baccalaureate and Commencement in one service. One hundred twenty-four Seniors received their diplomas. The class theme was "Life is a journey, not a destination." The blue carnation was the class flower.

The Reverend Gary Hogue from the Nevada United Methodist Church delivered the invocation.

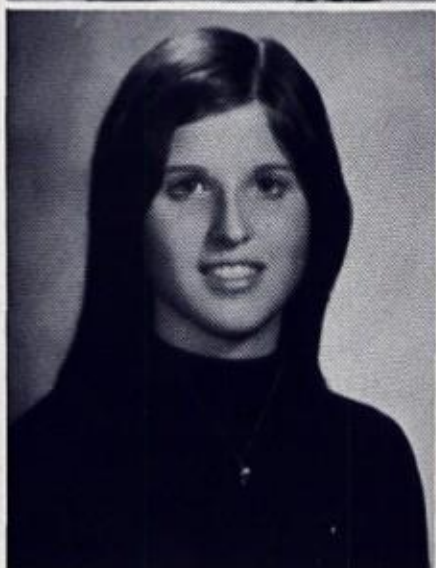

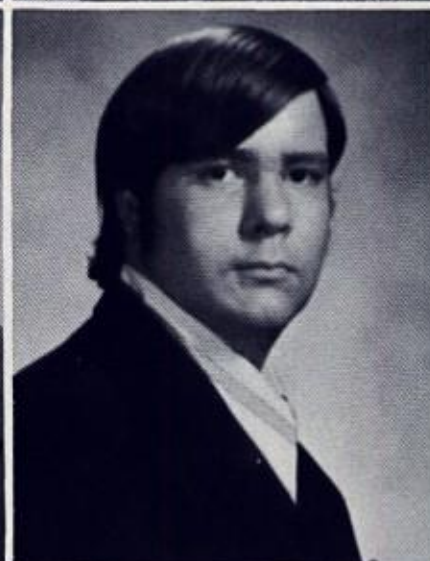

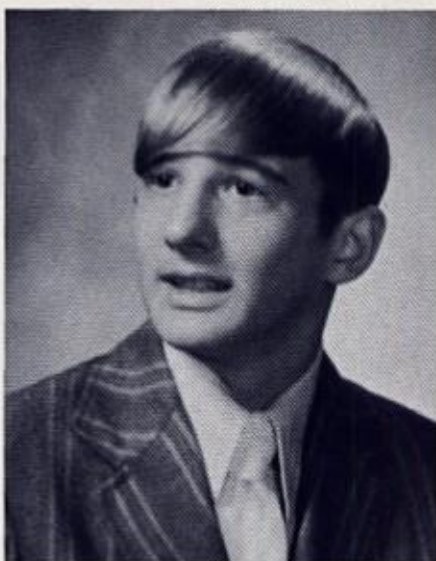

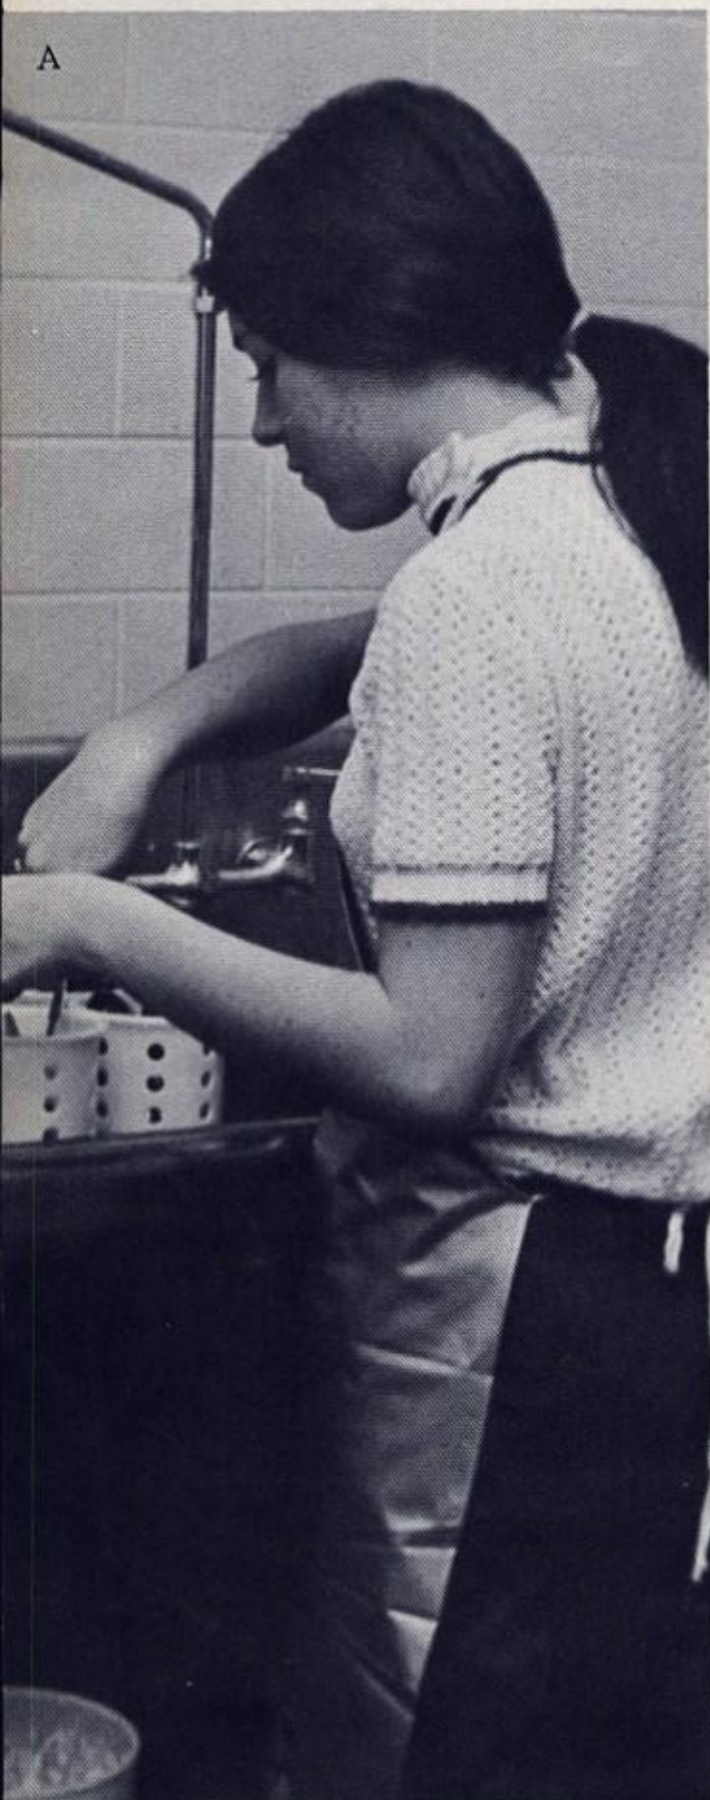

The choir sang two numbers and Carol Kepler played the "Magic Trumpet." Gary Schweizer gave the Senior class message.

Mr. Donnenwirth introduced the speaker. Rev. Hogue gave the address "An Unexpected Party." The choir graduates sang "We've Only Just Begun." Principal Miller introduced the class, and Carl Miller presented the diplomas.

A: Senior Carol Kepler displays her musical talent with her "Mag-ci Trumpet." B: The choir graduates sing their final song at Wynford. C: Kathy Gallant and Gwen Harris get out of class to decorate. D: "Hey, Kim, where's Greg Griffin?" E: Rev. Hogue addresses the class. F: A class flower for remembrance goes to Sue Stevens from Larry Whitmeyer. G: Top ten Seniors have something to smile about! H: President Gary Schweizer leads the class in turning the tassel.

Seniors Spend Free Time Developing Individual Interests

Seniors were very active through the year "doing their own thing." It varied from working in the school cafeteria to playing pin pong.

Whatever they worked at, though, the seniors always went out for it wholeheartedly.

Seniors Are Kept Busy with Many School Responsibilities

Many senior students were busy during the year with various duties they volunteered to do. Helping as teacher assistants and office helpers were just a few of them. The Student Council performed the morning announcements to relieve the office of this necessary and important task. Choir monitors and librarians were another important face of Wynford. These students produced the efficiency that W.H. S. is well-known for.

Juniors Have Active Year

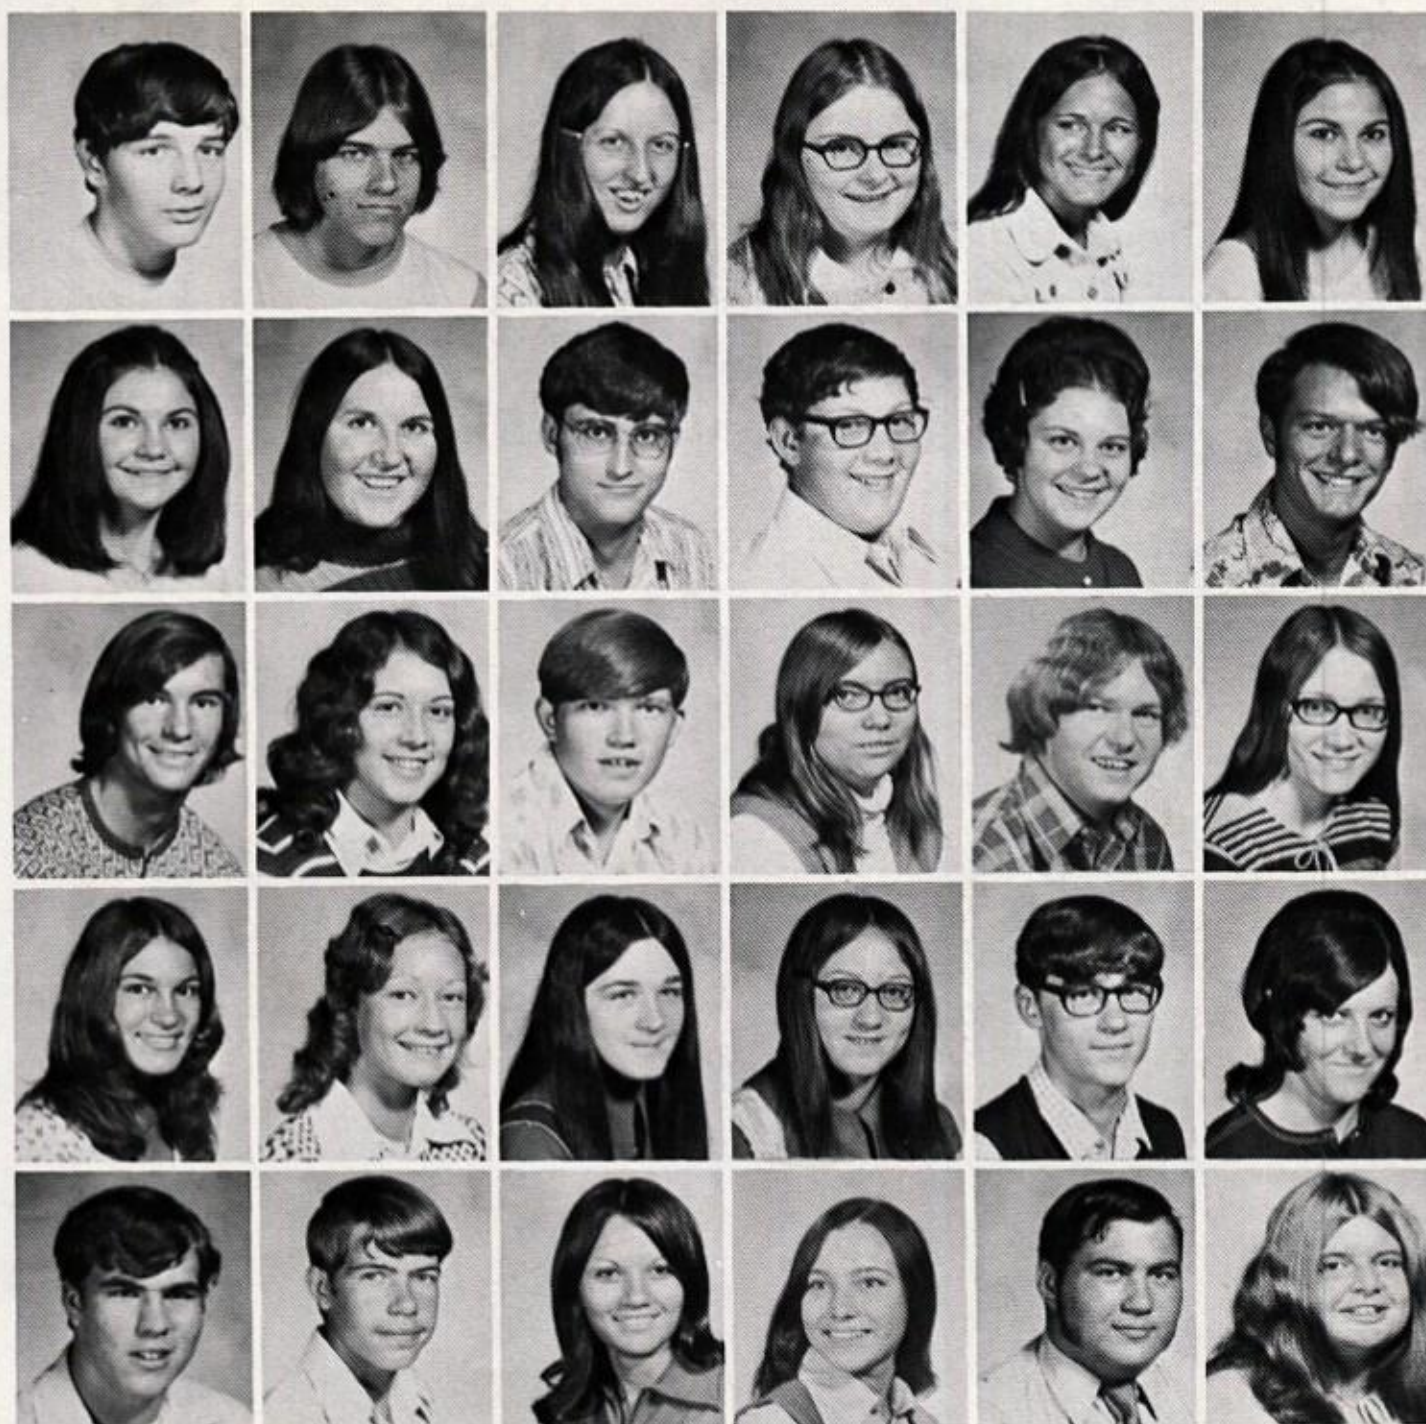

The Junior class had a very exciting and eventful year. Members of the class were thrilled to receive their class rings, but weren't quite as happy getting "stuck" with the TB tests. The Juniors were responsible for the Christmas assembly. The class presented the play "You Were Born on a Rotten Day" on November 17th and 18th. Working in the concession stands and selling Rex soap helped realize the goal of their finances, the Junior-Senior prom.

INVOLVEMENT

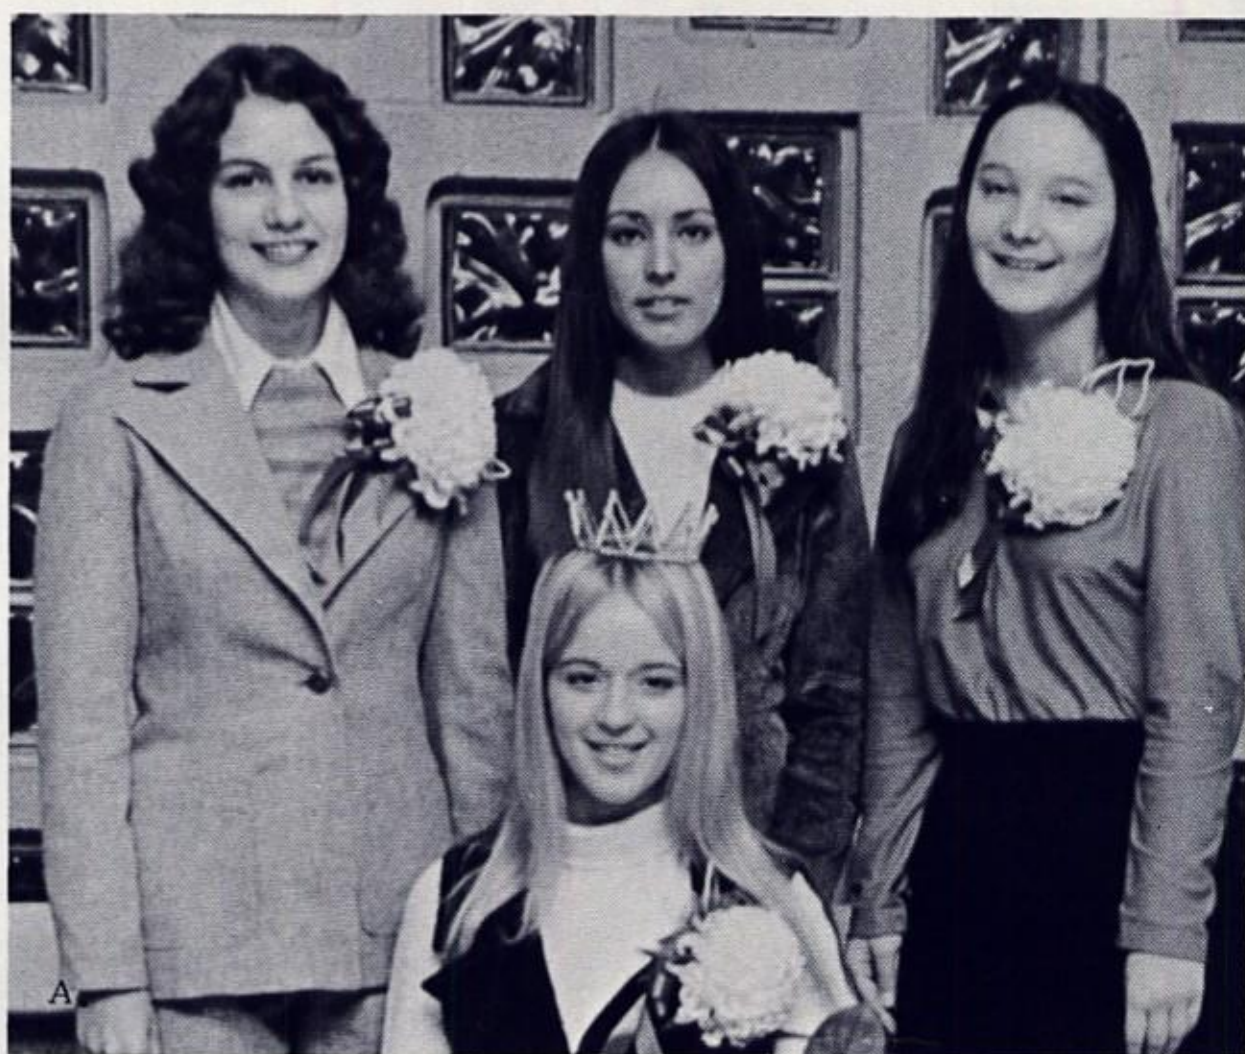

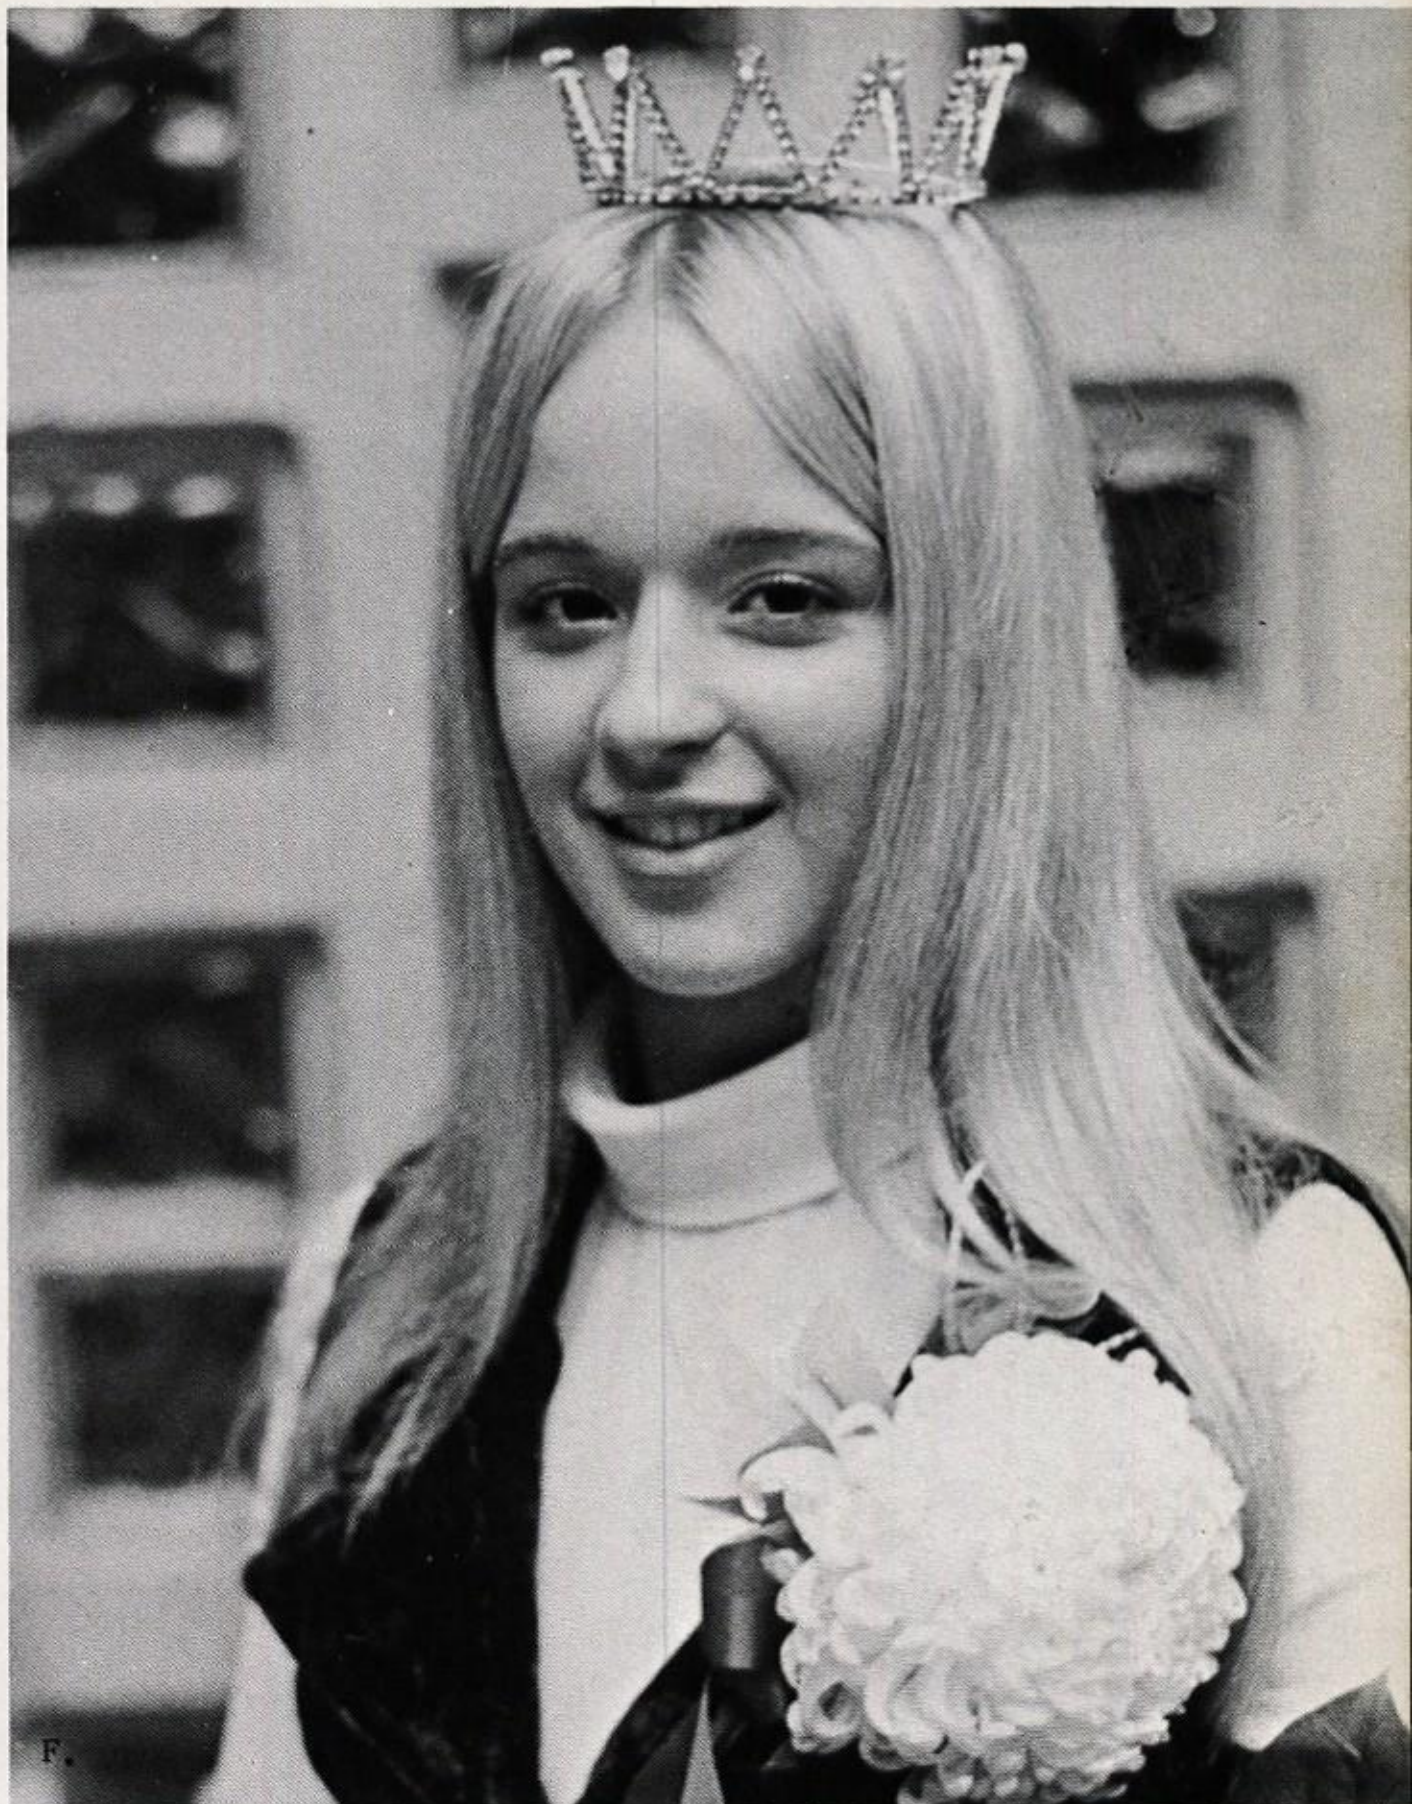

1972 Football Homecoming Queen Is Miss Becky Metzger

The 1972 Football Homecoming was held on a cold and rainy October evening. Four Senior girls were vying for the title of Royal Homecoming Queen. Sarah Clark represented the FFA, Becky Metzger, the Key Club, Vicki Powers, the Varsity W, and Kim Schifer, the Student Council. The girls were escorted by Senior Cross Country members Bill Hieber, Mark Shealy, Art Stormer, and Lee Gervais. Becky was crowned queen by Dave Whitmeyer. The evening was also successful in that the Royals defeated the Elgin Comets 6 to 12.

Many Achievements Gained by Outstanding Wynford Students

Many honors and awards were bestowed upon Wynford students. Several went to district science fair at Heidelberg after the local fair, and five advanced to the state. Three students placed high enough in the G.T.C.T.M. tests to become money-winners. The school also had one State Homemaker and one state F.F.A. officer. In scholarship tests, there were two firsts, one second, one third, and other placings in the district; one first, two 10ths, and several Honorable Mentions in the state.

Students Engage in Various Educational Programs

Many educational opportunities were given Wynford students this year. Among these were the Voice of Democracy speech contest, Boys' and Girls' State, and a foreign exchange program. Over the summer Diane Von Stein traveled to Peru and Sarah Clark traveled to Sweden. In addition, Elizabeth Gerstl visited W.H.S. while staying at Von Steins'. All students enjoyed their trips very much.

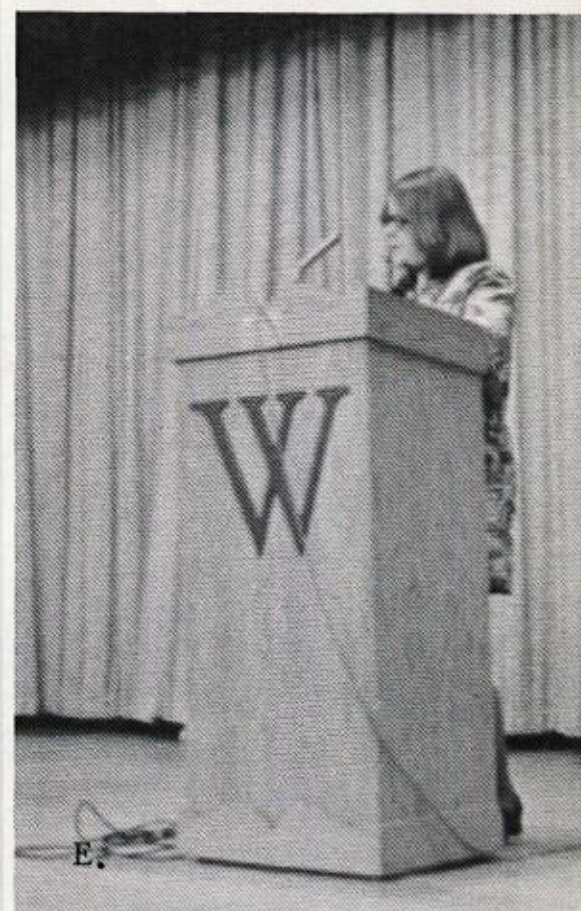

To learn more about the governmental system Art Stormer and Bob Snodgrass traveled to Buckeye

Boys' State and Becky Bardon attended Buckeye Girls' State.

The W.H.S. speech department participated in the Voice of Democracy speech contest sponsored by the American Legion. The theme of the contest was "My Responsibility to Freedom." At the final judging Carol Kepler was the first place winner, Mari Leuthold gained second and Randy Hieber was chosen as third. Carol later participated in the district speech contest and placed in the top ten.

Basketball Homecoming Queen Is Becky LaRue

presented her the crown. Dave Whitmeyer presented the traditional roses to the new queen. The evening was enjoyed by all in attendance because later the Royals conquered the Elgin Comets. The next evening a dance was held to honor Becky and the other attendants.

Students, Parents, and Faculty Show School Spirit

There were various displays of spirit of Wynford. One was the many pep rallies, which were accented by pep talks by the coaches, skits by various organizations, spirit contests in which teachers got pies in their faces, and two "get-involved" rallies.

An innovation this year was a Donkey Basketball game sponsored by the Athletic Boosters in which students battled faculty and alumni "riding" donkeys.

Also held were the traditional foul-shooting contests which found Mrs. Keller the Mom's champ and Mr. Hornak the Dad's.

Assemblies Provide Students Entertainment in Many Forms

Wynford students were provided a variety of entertainment in assemblies this year. A gymnastic show was done by Otto Schmidt, an art exhibition by Suzanne Silvercruys, and a man brought reptiles and insects from many parts of the world. Musical programs included "The Second Session," "Life, Incorporated," and the Bowling Green University Percussion Ensemble.

The various classes also presented assemblies for Veteran's Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter. These holidays were portrayed using slides, music, and orations.

C: A lesson in art and her philosophy of life make up Suzanne Silvercruys's presentation. D: The proper way of tumbling is shown to Neil Brause by Otto Schmidt.

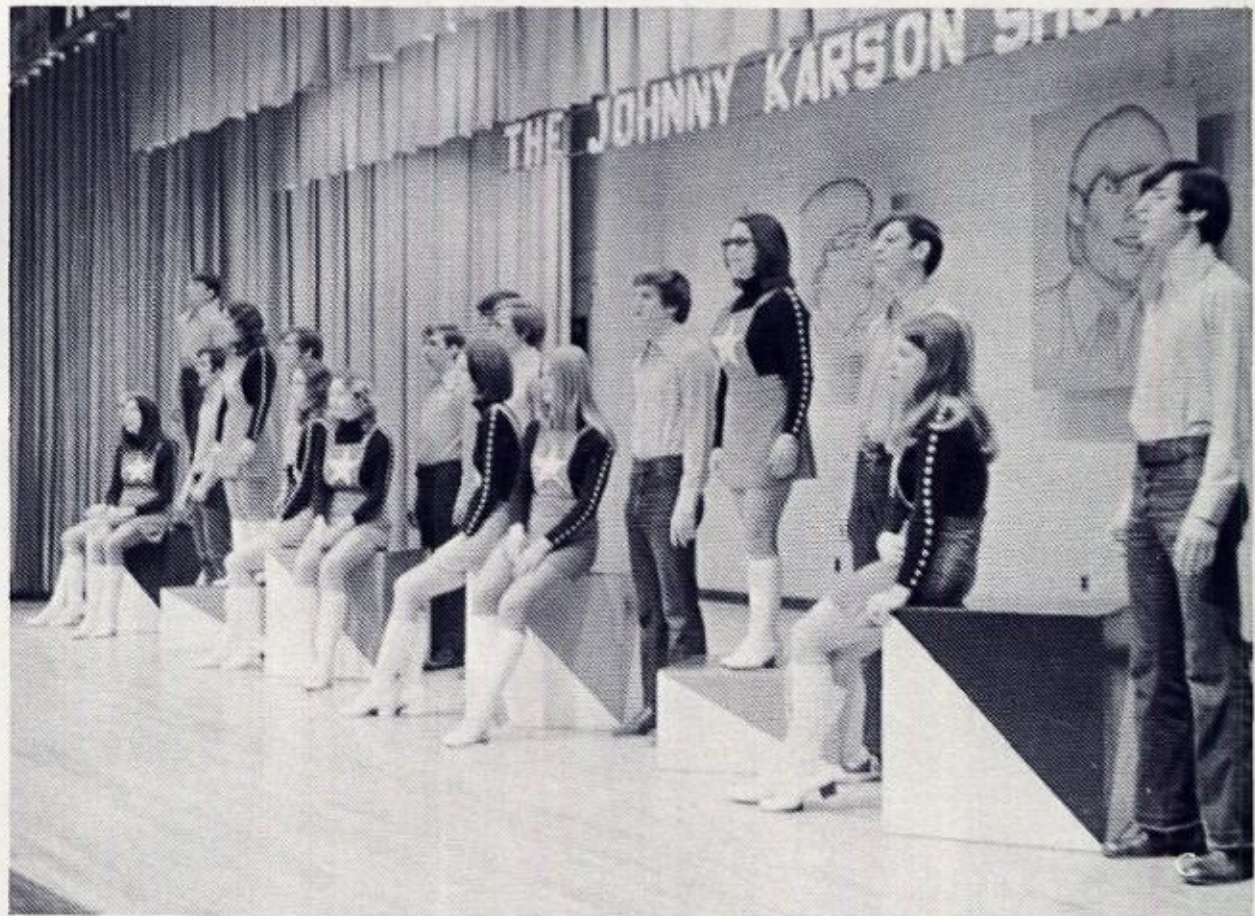

1973 Royal Follies Display Much School Talent

The Wynford Follies '73 took on a new form this year, patterned after the "Johnny Carson Show." Mark Shealy portrayed Johnny Carson with Steve "Suds" Sutherland as Ed McMahon and Doc Sevrensén, in the form of Mitch Light, leading the Royal Brass. Featured this year were the Royal Singers, Royal Dancers, and the Armbruster Wrecking Company. There were also various comedy acts, such as the "Littlest Midget," Bikini Belles, Senior Girls Kazoo Band, and the Freshmen Girls "Nighttime." The Follies, scheduled for March 16th, 17th, and 18th, were also held the 24th and 25th because of the weather problems and the number of persons wanting to attend. The Follies were a great success and an encouragement toward further musical productions at Wynford.

Class of '73 Skill Through

The Class of '73 presented "The Family That Nobody Wanted" April 27th and 28th. It was a rather humorous, yet touching story. Rev. and Mrs. Doss could have no children of their own so they adopted several of different nationalities. Problems arose because people failed to realize that this was just one big happy family. Donny, the D: Mr. Miller and Mr. Kindinger discuss plans for the banquet. E: "How's business, Mr. Suter?" F: "It takes a scientific mind to decorate ceilings, Mr. Naftzgar." G: Juniors Kevin Ruth and Sharon Rothhaar enjoy the spicy conversation. H: Found discussing the latest gossip are Larry and Colleen Whitmeyer. I: Working diligently cleaning radishes is our study hall teacher, Mrs. Armbruster.

Students Honored at Banquet Prepared and Served by Faculty

On May 8, 1973, Wynford had its second annual Honors Banquet, which was organized and provided by the faculty and administration. Students who are honored at this event are those achieving high honors in science, math, typing,

I.O.E., F.F.A., Honor Society, and other scholastic honors. This year, an excellent meal was provided, after which the program included musical numbers by a Swing Choir from Bucyrus and a speaker.

Organizations Honor Members Install Officers at Banquets

During spring banquets, new officers in various organizations were installed. Members were recognized for achievements and honors won during the year. Most Valuable Players in girls' sports were honored at the GAA banquet. At the FHA banquet, Kathy Hornak was installed as the new president. Honorary Chapter Farmers were recognized at the FFA banquet.

Field Day Allows Students to Close Books and Enjoy School

Field Day was held May 21 on a bright sunny day. Students participated in various sports: softball, tennis, volleyball, basketball, flag football, golf, and kite-flying.

Couples took part in the egg toss, sack races, and wheelbarrow races. A tug-o'-war was held, with no one winning, leaving the Juniors the defending champions.

A: An egg messes up Lisa Steinhilber's day. B: The better half starts the wheelbarrow race as A. Stormer, J. Walton, D. Gerhart, P. Hieber, T. Stahl, and L. Steinhilber participate. C: Seniors Ilona Luidhart and Janet Walton anxiously await their eggs. D: Somehow the kite-flying contest gets all strung up. E: Sophomores L. Larsen, L. Darby, P. Hieber, and D. Reffey display their talents in the sack race. F: He's got the race in the bag! G: Humpty Dumpty could have stayed on better. H: Mass chaos is found during the tug-o'-war. I: Intense effort is put forth by Dave Eicholt.

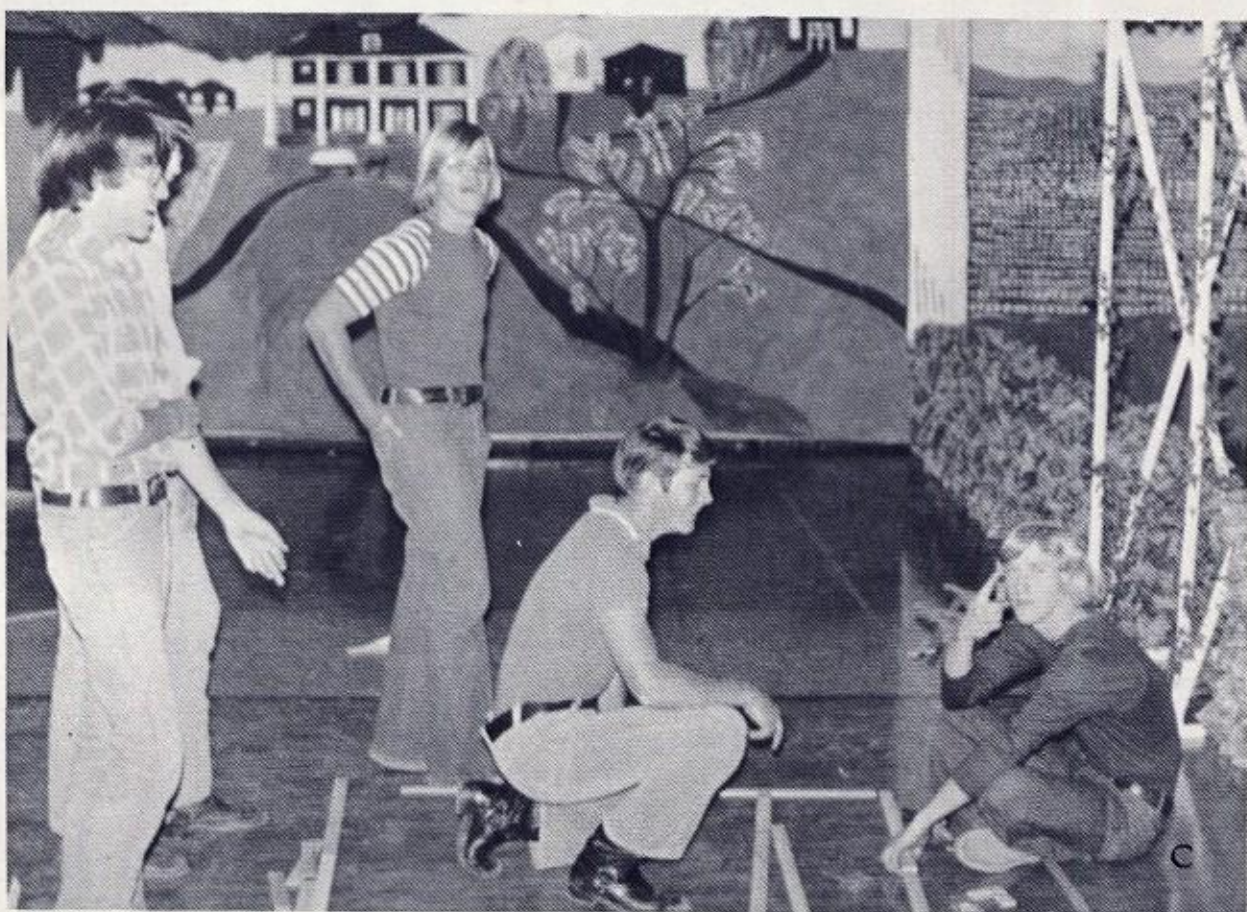

A: "Yo soy Zorro!" shouts Miguel Cuffman. B: Debora and Pamela Hieber prepare tacos to be sold to Wynford students. C: Freshman Spanish students "enjoy" the special food. D: Sr. Borland gives instructions to students in the Fiesta. E: Carla Kissling prepares hamburger for the tacos. F: The pinata finally bursts showering all with goodies. G: Srtas. Raquel Ross and Nancia Sipe sell tacos during the day. H: The Spanish band provides interesting numbers.

Los Conquistadores Celebrate Pan-American Day With Fiesta

Wynford's traditional Spanish Fiesta was held April 13 in observance of Pan-American Day. During the day, Spanish students wore Spanish costumes and sold tacos to other students at Paco's Taco Stand. That evening, in the school cafeteria, Spanish students, teachers, and parents attended a potluck supper of Spanish foods the students had prepared. Entertainment was provided by students in the Spanish band, several skits, the Mexican Hat Dance, and the breaking of the pinata.

Juniors Plan, Work Hard to Present "Southern Splendor"

This year's prom, "Southern Splendor," was a depiction of a plantation near New Orleans. The cafeteria, where a Southern style buffet luncheon was served, represented the banquet hall of a large mansion.

Student entered the gym by means of a porch supported by tall columns. The gym provided area for a garden, slaves' quarters, a steamship, and a grist mill with a turning paddle wheel.

After the meal Senior class president Gary Schweizer read the class will. Dance music was then provided by the John Kennedy Band. Later, a dance was held with the rock group "The Ratz" and students enjoyed other types of recreation. Breakfast was then served to those still surviving.

A: Prom preparation in progress. B: Putting finishing touches on one of the many murals in Vera Stormer. C: S. Louis, E. Doty, R. Pritchard, and S. Spengler discover that J. G: "Spraying grass can be a messy job, right, Bev Schenk?" H: Stuffing bushes is an enjoyable occupation for Linda Hieber and Delores Richmond. I: Not quite finished yet.

Senior Girls Receive County, National Recognition This Year

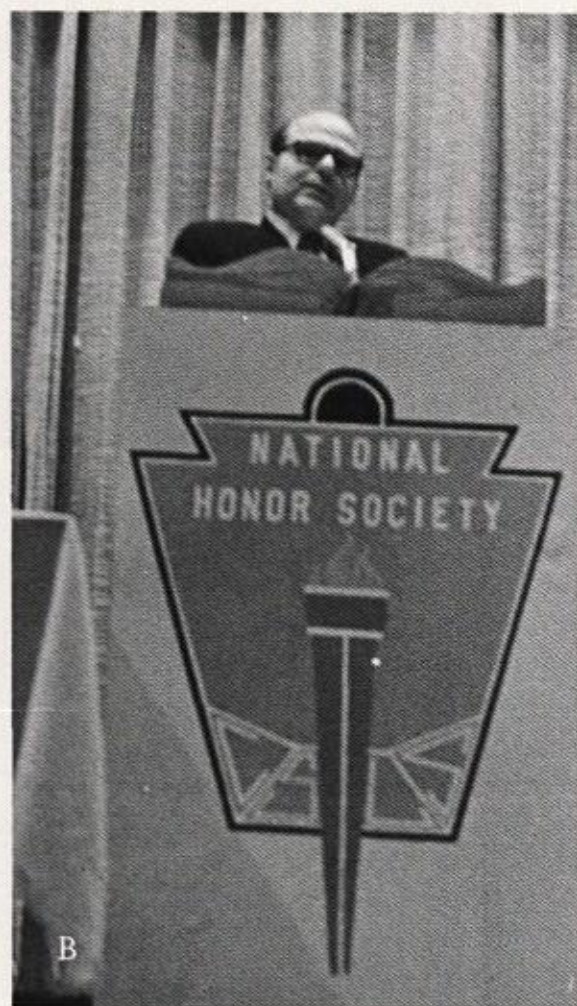

Two Senior girls received special recognition this year. Miss Sarah Clark received the honor of being Wynford's candidate in the county Mardi Gras pageant. She won the title of Miss Crawford County in October.

Miss Becky Bardon was honored for her outstanding ability in cheerleading. The cheerleaders chose her for the award of top cheerleader of the year. She was also one of twenty-four cheerleaders in the nation to receive special honors for her efforts.

Girls' Athletic Association Carries Out Sports Activities

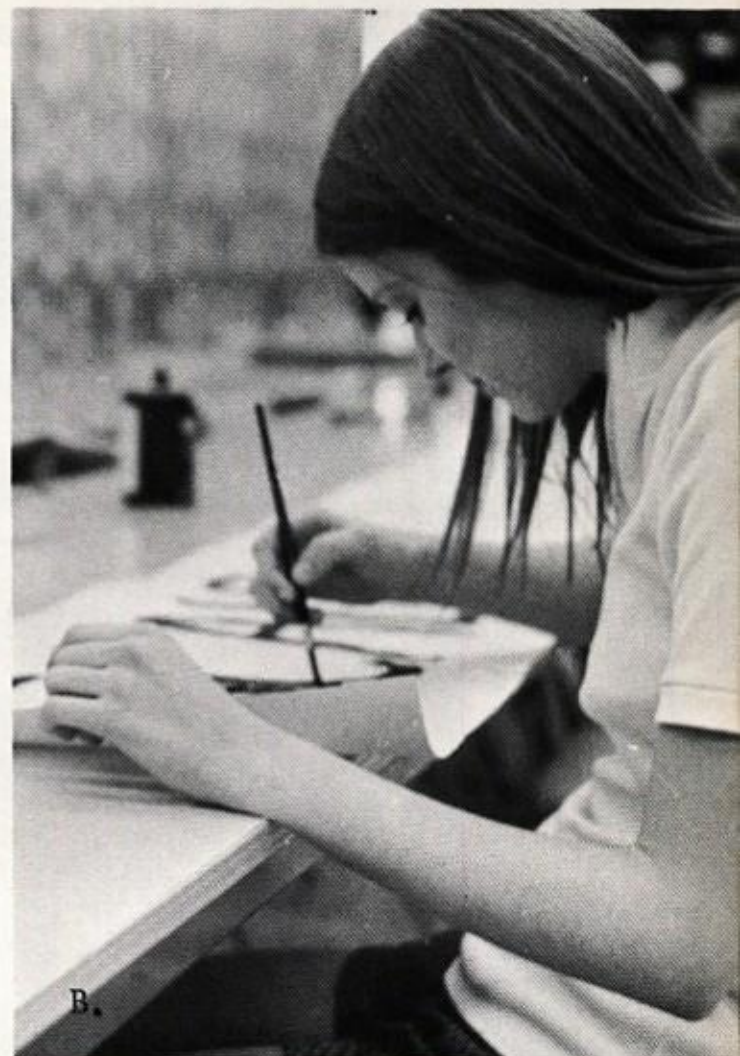

One of Wynford's largest organizations, the Girls' Athletic Association, had over one hundred members. This organization was quite active during the entire year. Interscholastic volleyball proved to be an exciting sport, as many games were very close. The year's activities also included interscholastic basketball.

In addition to interscholastic teams, the club found time for intramurals in both sports. The winning volleyball intramural team was Carol Kepler, Pam Rasnake, Debbie Kissling, Cheryl Kissling, Kay Kissling, Sharon Rothhaar, Colleen Whitmeyer and Molly Emick. The winning intramural basketball team consisted of Nancy Sipe, Ellen Brause, Julie Mathhews, Dona Barnes, Janice Stormer, Jenny Knapp, Beth Armbruster, and Laura King.

Wynford Students Utilize Musical Talents in Choir

The Senior Choir of sixty-nine members provided the school with much entertainment this year. A Christmas and Spring Concerts performed by the outstanding Choir shows the hard effort put forth by this group. They also put on concerts for churches in the area.

The Freshmen Choir got a taste of Wynford's style this year. Though only 28 members they proved to have much talent and, therefore, provided the school system with more entertainment.

The Royal Singers represented the Choir as they performed on various occasions for civic groups and school programs.

The Wynford Follies was quite successful this year as they performed four nights with large crowds. The Royal Follies Dancers, Singers, and Brass were the main attractions of the show based on the Johnny Carson Show. Many other acts also added to the excitement of the show.

W.H.S. Marching Band Entertains Fans, Promotes School Spirit

This year's Wynford Royals' Marching Band marched seventy members. Awards were given to the top squad and marcher of every week during the football season. At the end of the year a top squad and a top marcher were chosen, and received a free meal at the Brown Derby. These awards were received by a daily grade from the squad leader's judging of their marching performance.

Some of the band's shows were based on television commercials, Oldies but Goodies, and a Patriotic Fantasy. Many numbers featured the outstanding majorettes.

The band is looking toward a year of expansion and the performing of many more entertaining halftime shows.

New Techniques Provide for Bigger, Better Fall Book

There were many long hours and much hard work involved in the making of the 1973 ROYALE. To raise money to print the annual, each member sold advertising blocks to different firms. A new process was tried this year in which the yearbook was distributed in the fall, therefore, eliminating the spring supplement. It is certain that the students at W.H.S., as well as the public, can be proud of the production of this year's ROYALE.

Intensive Office Education Enables Better Business Future

Mr. Schiefer and Mrs. Kiess are to be honored for the work done in the Intensive Office Education classes. There was a class for Juniors and a class for Seniors. They typed many things for the school, such as the paper, programs for activities, and many more articles. This was a very worthwhile course for those interested in business education.

Los Conquistadores Initiates Sociedad Honoraria Hispanica

The Spanish Club held its annual initiation at the beginning of the school year. Later Los Conquistadores sponsored a UNICEF project which contributed to the welfare of children.

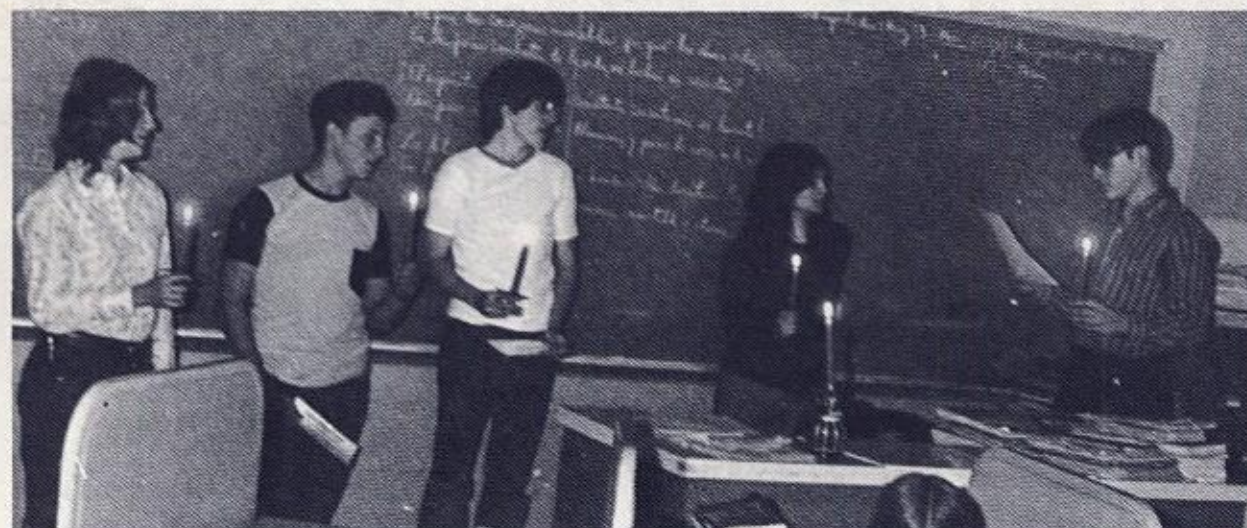

The club also held a white elephant sale to raise money. The Fiesta was held on April 13 with each Spanish student wearing an appropriate costume.

A chapter of the National Spanish Honor Society was begun for worthy Spanish students. Seven met the requirements for membership.

Top Wynford Athletes Represented in Varsity "W"

The Varsity "W" Club consisted of boys who participated in sports and earned their varsity letters. This year there were thirty-six members that made up the club. A main school service project this year for the lettermen was to enforce the new rules regarding basketball games. Varsity "W" members were equipped with arm-bands and stationed at entrances to the gym. Their big pizza party at the end of the year topped off a most profitable year.

Royal Clarion Shows Talent

The W.H.S. newspaper, ROYAL CLAIRON, was a great way of telling the public of school happenings. Much hard work was involved in printing the four-page paper. The ROYAL CLAIRON was distributed every month under the supervision of Mr. Thornton. The Jr. I.O.E. class typed the articles, which was of great help to the R. C. staff. The newspaper was printed at Art Press Printing Co. in Bucyrus.

Educational Organizations Enrich School Program

Wynford began a photography club this year. This organization was for those who would like to learn photography techniques. Mr. Rindfuss was their advisor.

Another newly organized club was the Future Medical Careers Club. This organization was for those interested in the medical field. Mrs. Niece served as their advisor.

Wynford has eight people who belonged to the local Junior A-achievement Group. They were set up like small business firms.

The other newly organized club was the Librarians Club. One of their activities to raise money for the library was selling pecans. Their advisor was Mrs. Noblit.

Student Librarians, Office Help Volunteer Services

Student librarians and office helpers are students who volunteer their services to benefit a smoothly operating system.

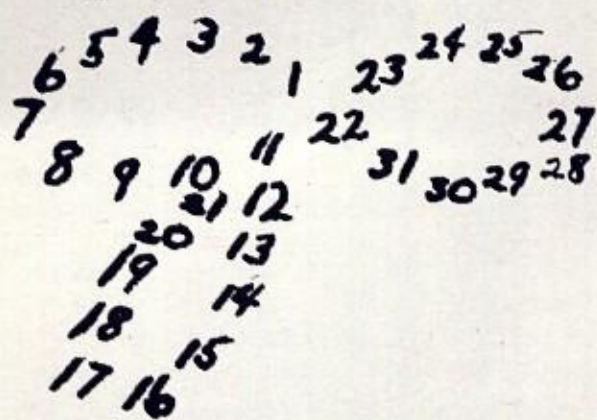

There were eighteen student librarians this year who performed such tasks as issuing and signing passes, replacing books on shelves, checking books and reference material in and out, and generally keeping the library neat.

Ten office helpers were a boon to Mrs. Whitmeyer and other office workers by doing typing, mimeographing, and other similar office jobs that are essential to the administration.

Key Club at Wynford Has Progressive Year

The Key Club was one of the most active organizations serving Wynford High School this year. After football season, the thirty-one member club cleaned up the school grounds. Their "cheers" at pep rallies were greatly received by the student body. These cheers featured "The Human Wynford,"

"Win," and "Script Go." The Key Club was also responsible for the new guardrails at the main entrance to the grounds. The boys who served as officers for this fine group were President, C. Armbruster; Vice President, K. Ruth; Secretary, J. Keeny; Treasurer, S. Young; and Sergeant-of-Arms, R. Hieber.

New Coach, New Ideas, Give Brighter Hopes for Future

Although the Royals only had two wins this year, hopes for a much better season is apparent for next year. Wynford's 2-7 was not very good, but everyone did a fine job and worked extremely hard. This year the Royals had a fine new coach, by the name of Mr. John Terwilliger. He had to start fresh and indoctrinate his ideas into the minds of the Royal football players.

The Royal gridgers lost only eight players due to graduation, so there will be bright hopes and anticipation for the future.

There was a great deal of talent exhibited this year. Tim Steinhilber was quarterback and completed fourty-two percent of his passes. Dave Reefey led with the most yards gained, as he averaged twenty-nine per game.

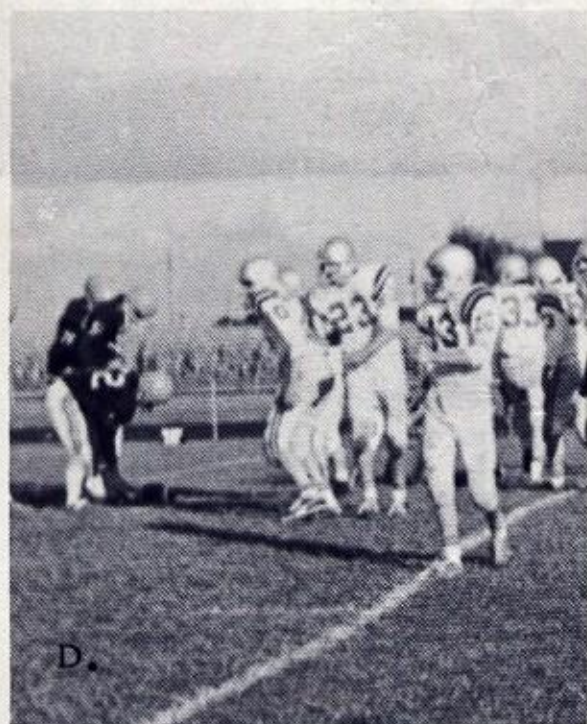

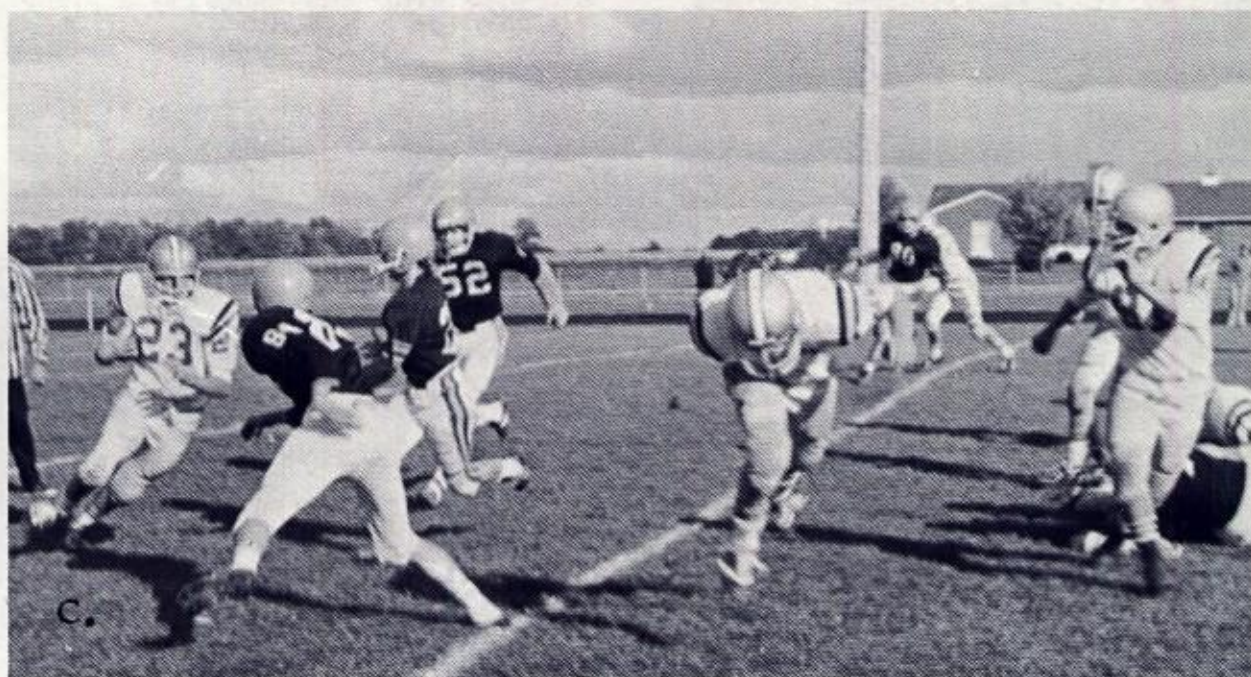

A: Warming up before the contest is Tim Steinhilber. B: The Royals gather around Coach Terwilliger for a pre-game pep talk. C: Making the defensive play on their opponent is the Royals' major concern. D: Plunging for extra yardage is Dave Reefey. E: Wynford Royals leave the field after a hard-fought win.

Freshman Team Does Well; Coaches Give Expert Advice

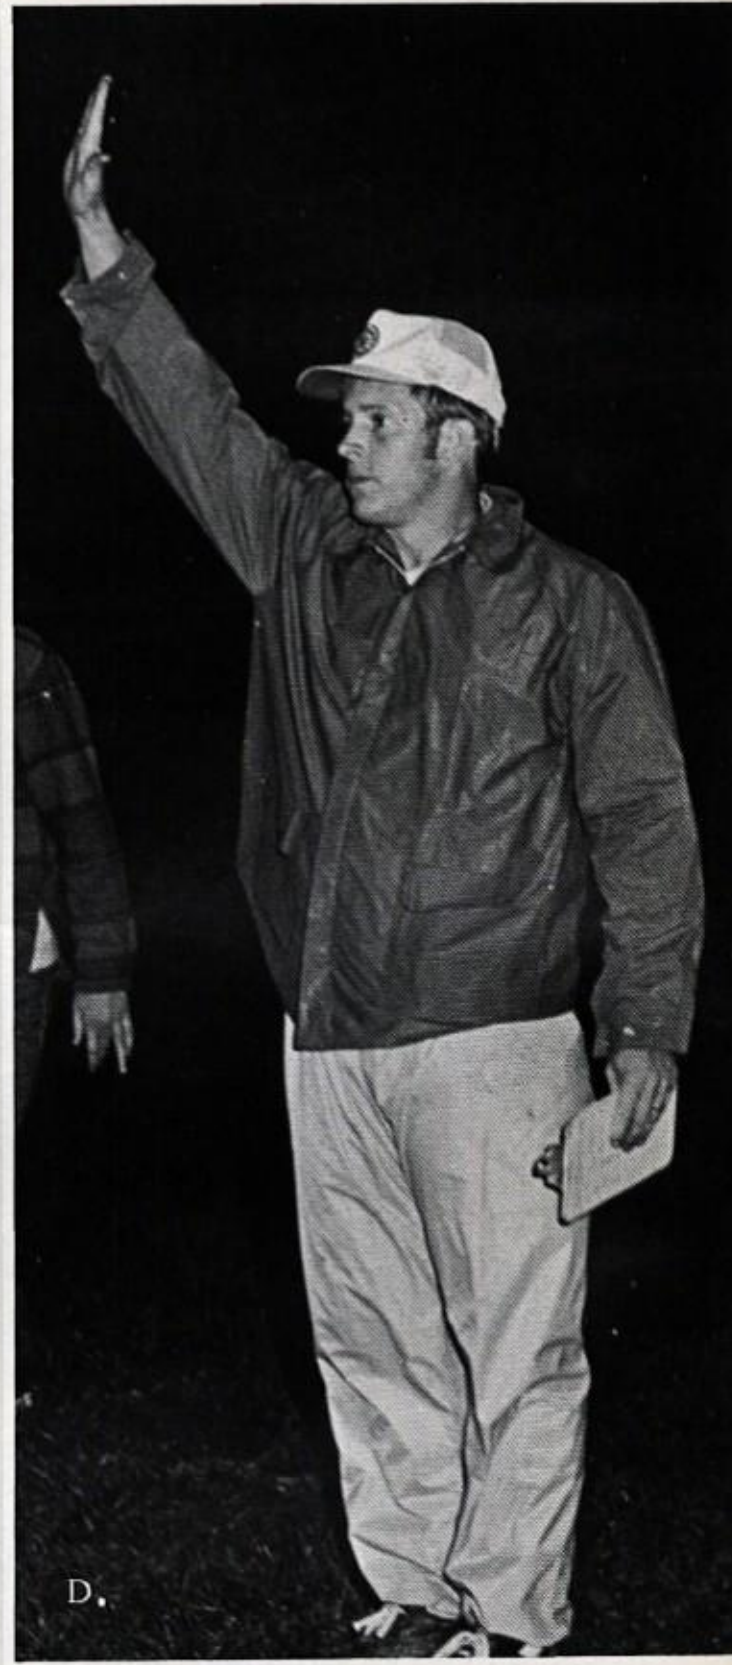

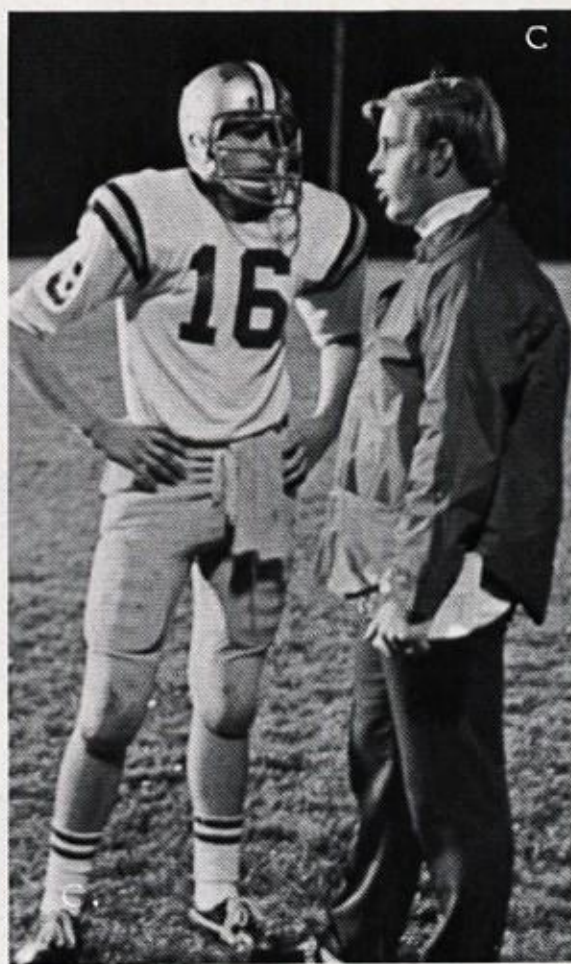

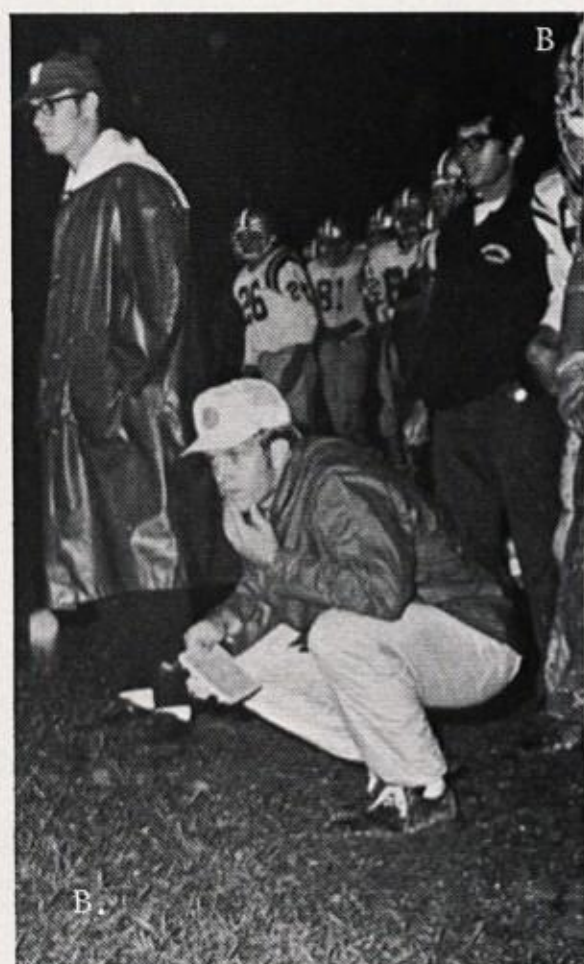

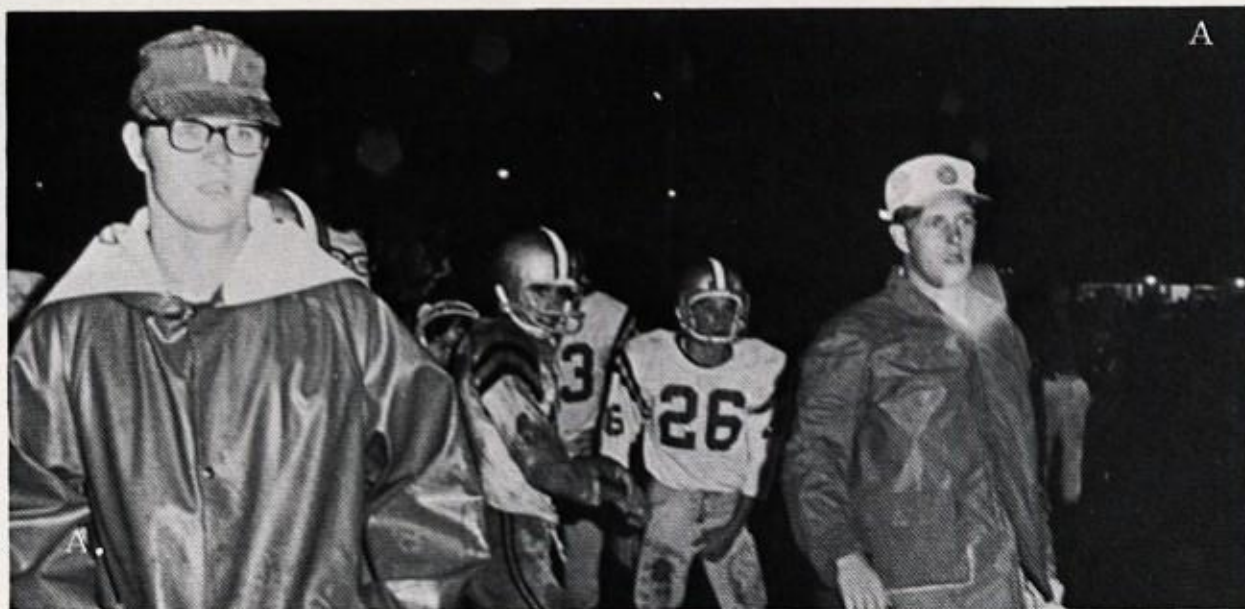

The freshman team did a good job this year and will certainly be an asset for the future Royal Varsity Team. Fine players displayed superb talent and a great effort was put out by all. One may expect only the best from this new group of athletes.

Wynford had the superb coaching abilities of Mr. Terwilliger, the head coach, Chuck Campbell, John Ramayley, Don Miller, Larry Miller, and Nick Kajca. Everyone appreciated their help and aid for making football a worthwhile experience.

A: Desire is shown through the efforts of the players. B: A conference between Faron Volkmer and Coach Kajca plans the next play. C: About to cut through the defenders for a long gain is Faron Volkmer. D: Royal Frosh prepare to hold that line.

Cross Country Has Many Wins

This year's Cross Country Team had a magnificent season as they finished with a 9-4 record. In addition, they placed fifth in the Conference Meet and sixth in a field of thirteen teams at the Ridgedale Invitational. They also ranked number three in the Findlay Invitational, fourth in the County Classic, and sixth in the Sectional. Three fine runners qualified for the District Meet: Mark Shealy, Joe Dotson, and John Oberlander.

Basketball Tradition Kept in Tact by Successful Season

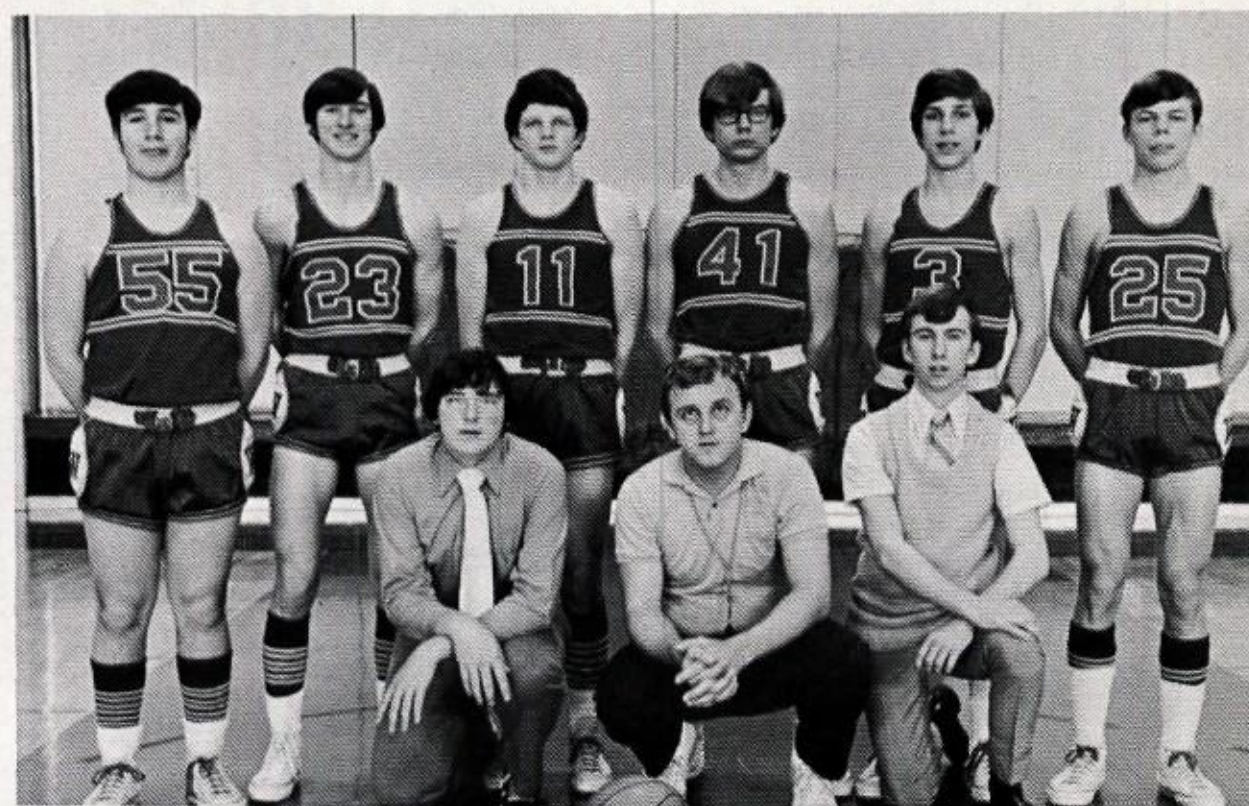

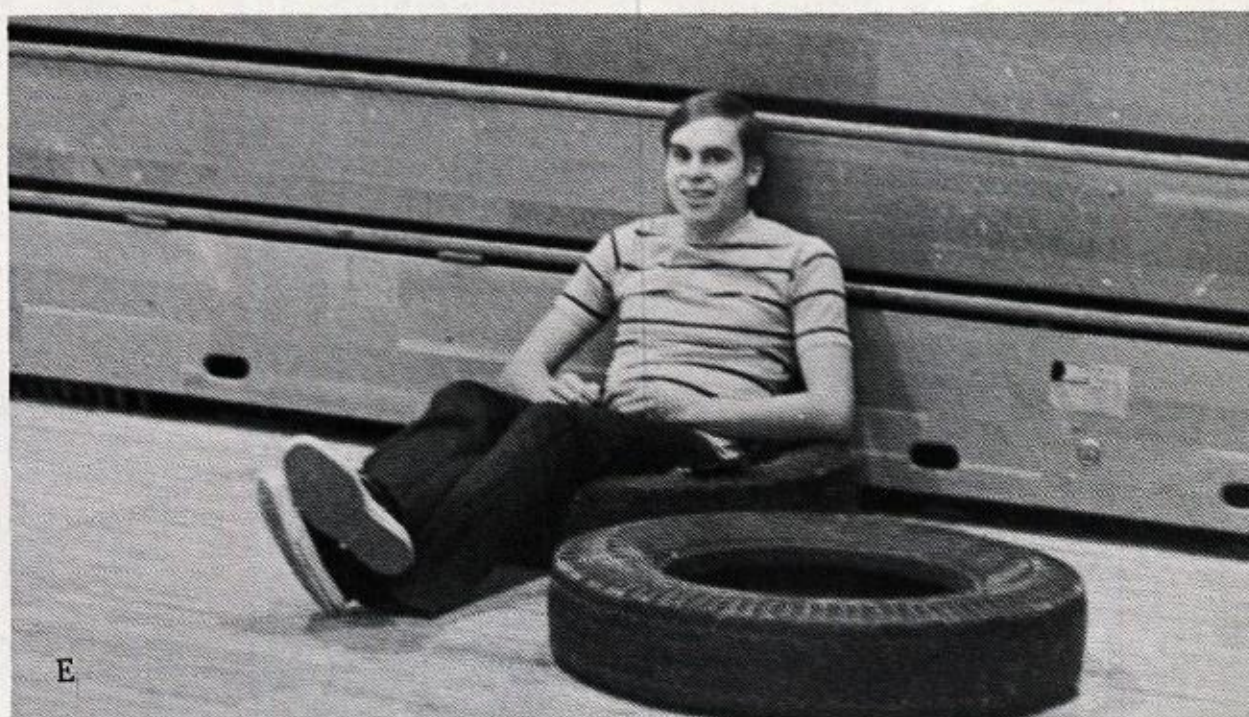

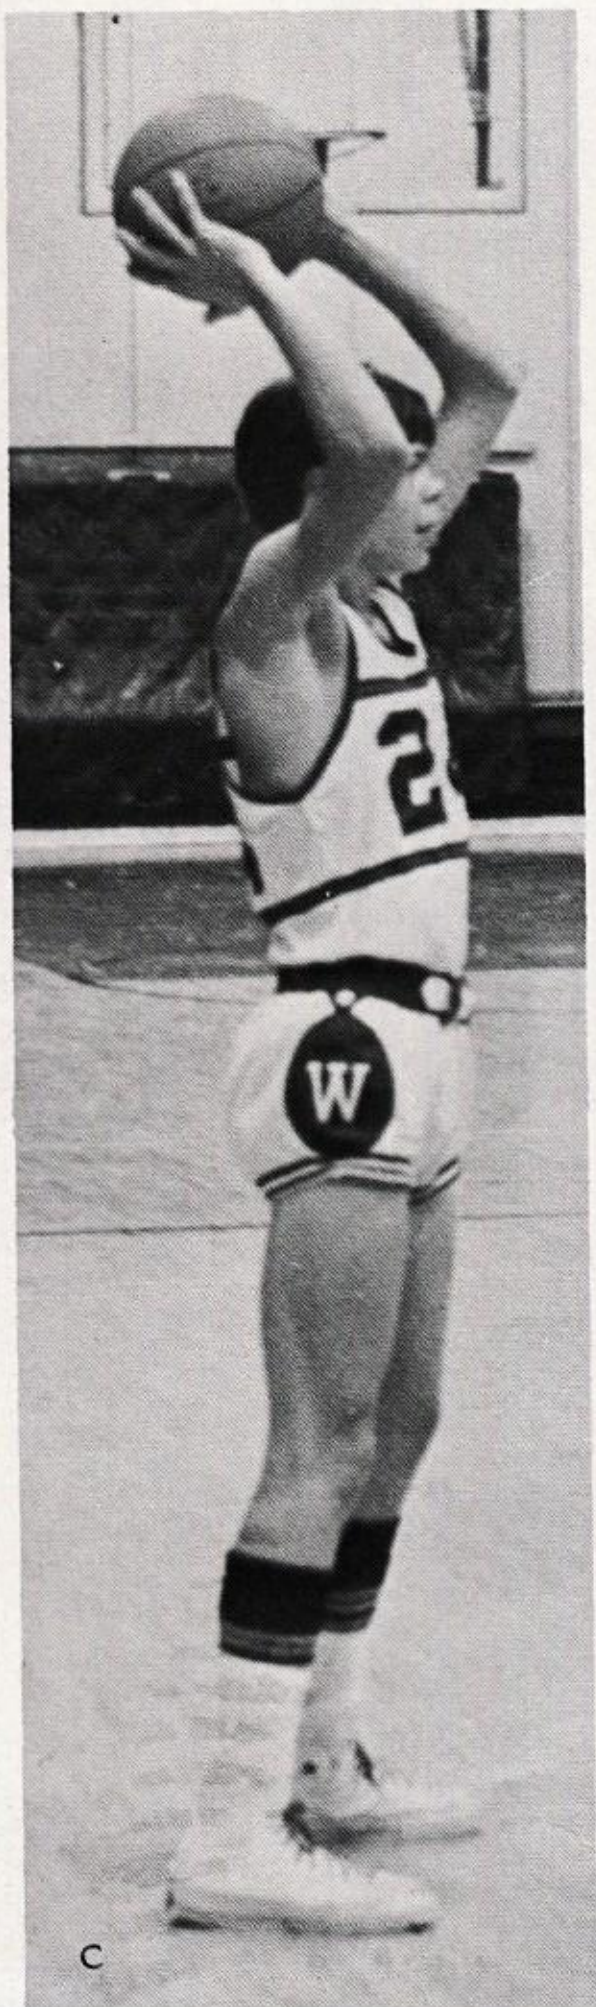

This year's version of the Wynford Royals Varsity basketball team showed itself well throughout the season. Although there was much inexperience as Brad Bachtell was the only returning letterman and two or three sophomores started on occasion, the team proved a tough foe to all opponents. Led by Bachtell and Tim Steinhilber on offence, the Royals used the "shuffle" offense to perfection. The Royals played an aggressive defense game and permitted only 48 points per game in NCC league play. The Reserve team proved itself very capable as every player demonstrated his ability during the season.

Freshmen Cagers Finish 12-3; Coaches Want Hustle, Desire

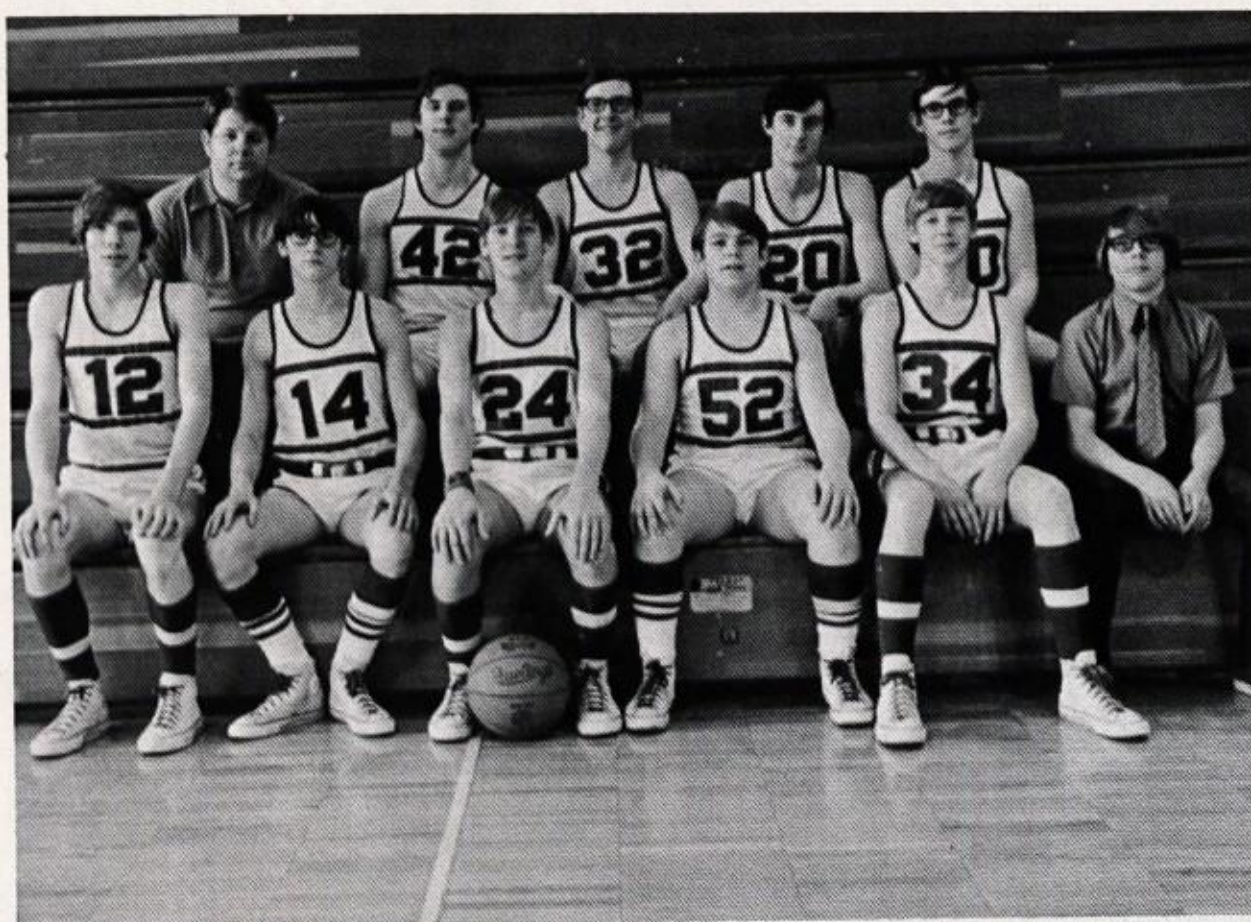

This year the Freshmen had one of the finest squads in the area. Defeated only by an excellent Ridgedale team twice and by Buckeye Central, the team reeled off twelve convincing victories. These players will be a great addition to next year's team.

Mr. Bauer did a fine job of coaching the Varsity this year. He molded some fine individual talent into an excellent unit. Mr. Miller, coach of the Reserve team, taught the players the need for a total team effort and to play to the best of their abilities. Coach Kajca installed in the Freshmen the concepts of a new offense and team play.

Wynford Tracksters Run Well on New All-Weather Surface

The 1973 Wynford Royals track team pulled off what many considered a great upset victory by winning the North Central Conference track meet for the second year in a row. The Royals used depth and clutch performances to win the meet. It was altogether fitting that our team should win it on our new all-weather track.

Our Royals gained valuable experience throughout the year and many strong efforts were received. Tom Kalb broke six feet in the high jump, Todd Stahl had fine efforts in the shot put, Jim Bosworth showed well in the discus and Joe Dotson and Mark Shealy did well in the distances. All members should be commended for their efforts throughout the year.

Varsity Track: ROW 1: S. Stiner, K. Brown, K. Laipply, S. Gebhardt, L. Honaker, C. Butler, D. Haycook, B. Keller, E. Doty, T. Kalb. ROW 2: M. Shealy, A. Stormer, K. Pritchard, G. Schweizer, R. Freshmen Show Talent As The Have Great Efforts by Many

Although their meets were few, the Freshmen showed fine talent this year. Some of them ran in the Varsity meets and scored points. Faron Volkmer and Steve Weisenauer performed well in the sprints, and Steve Cuffman proved capable in the 880 yard run. A surprise in the hurdles was Dave Eicholt as was Jeff Bogard in the pole vault. All of the athletes of this team returning next year should become valuable to next year's Varsity team.

Freshman Track: ROW 1: J. Bauer, S. Cuffman, D. Routzahn, W. Long, J. Picou, R. Burton, J. Bogard. ROW 2: Mr. Kajca, coach; M. Zimmerman, S. Lester, S. Weisenauer, F. Volkmer, J. Dishong, D. Eicholt, D. Lyons, S. Miller, Mr. Smith, coach.

Royals Have Fine Season Under New Coach John Terwilliger

and last year's coach, Gus Corfman.

Mike Hahn and Tim Steinhilber pitched well by allowing few runs. The leading hitter was Jim Nickelson who had a .347 average. The leading fielder was Anthony Ervin with a 1.000 fielding average.

Linksmen Break Stroke Total Record With 167 by Top Four

The Wynford golf team continued to improve this year. The Varsity team broke the record for strokes with a low of 167. This team consisted of Jeff Keeny, Tim Cover, Mike Steiger, and Randy Pritchard. The Varsity was quite successful finishing fourth at the NCC Meet.

The Reserves contributed to the scene with good scores. They were made up of Bill Morgan, Jim Long, Matt Michaels, Jay Heer, and David Larsen. Coached by Mr. Markey, he and his golfing talent helped pave the way to the teams' fine season.

A: The chip shot is a tough one to hit. B: Ready to hit a long drive is Randy Pritchard. C: "I wanted a hole-in-one," says Jeff Keeny. D: Put 'er in the cup, Mike. We're behind ya.

Armbruster, honorary co-captain; Gold Helmet Award; J. Dotson, most improved in cross country; G. Markley, Sportsmanship Award.

Basketball Intramurals

Every Saturday many fine talents were shown in the form of Basketball Intramurals. The team headed by Ken Prince won the championship by beating the team headed by Chuck Armbruster. Everyone enjoyed the experience and had a great deal of fun.

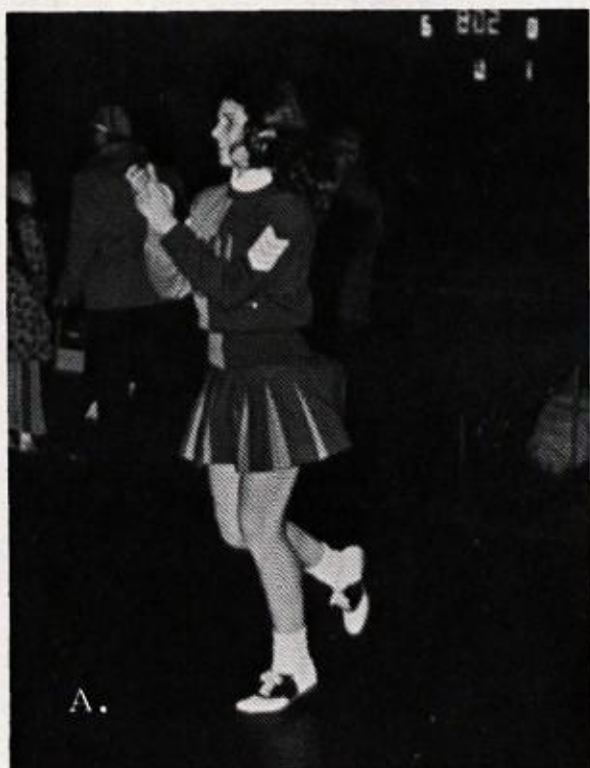

WINNING INTRAMURAL TEAM: M. Hoffman, G. Markley, J. Daiber, K. Prince, S. Spengler, S. Louis, D. Miller, C. Rarick.

A: With an ever-ready whistle, Mr. Dulin supervises. B: A key basket is what this unidentifiable player has in mind. C: Leading intramural scorer Terry Schifer shows his form. D: "The Classic Hook Shot" is made by Ken Prince as Chuck Armbruster defends.

Cheerleaders Give Spirit

The Varsity Cheerleaders backed the football and basketball teams all the way by having several pep assemblies and all around great cheering. Wynford was very proud to have a cheerleading squad of such high caliber.

A: A Royal victory is Janet Walton's purpose. B: Varsity cheerleaders lead the student body. C: Two great smiles from two great cheerleaders. D: The cold and rain cannot stop Kim and Judy. E: The rah-rahs get in the groove.

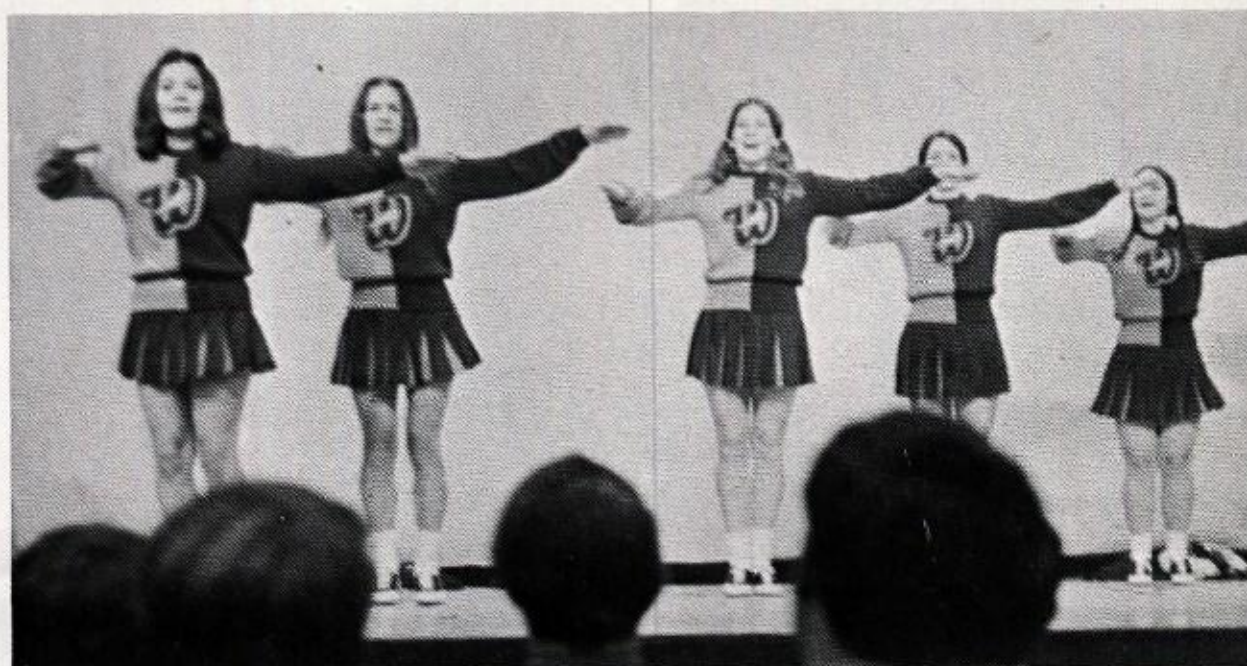

Varsity Cheerleaders: ROW 1: J. Walton, R. Reed, K. Schifer, ROW 2: E. Gerhart, B. Bardon, ROW 3: J. Bender.

Reserve, Freshmen Cheerleaders; Statisticians

The Reserve and Freshmen teams had fine cheerleading squads backing them. These girls should be commended for the outstanding job they did. They gained a great deal of experience and will fill the shoes of the Varsity cheerleaders well. Another group of people who deserve some recognition are the statisticians. They worked very diligently on keeping the records.

Reserve Cheerleaders: ROW 1: K. Griffin, D. Miller, P. Hieber, ROW 2: S. Schifer, K. Eppley, ROW 3: K. Hornak.

Statisticians: ROW 1: C. Taylor, M. Barnes, C. Rothhaar, T. Metzger, ROW 2: J. Gervais, M. Leuthold, J. Bauer.

A: Lost in a pom-pom is Janet Walton. B: Senior Becky Bardon does her version of the dipsy-doodle. C: Way up there in the corner is statistician Mari Lauthold. D: Dancing to the fight song comes naturally to Judy Bender.

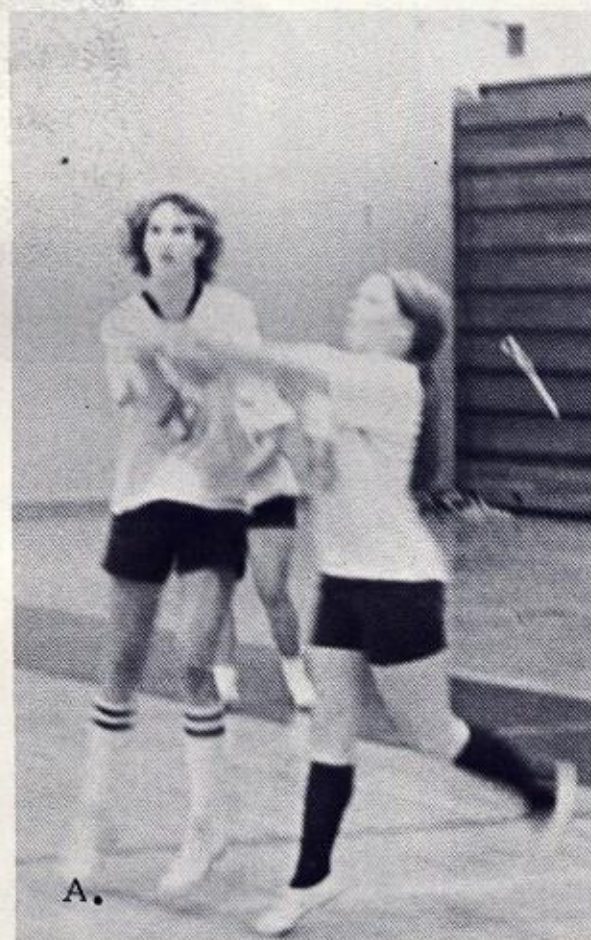

Volleyball

Has Few Wins

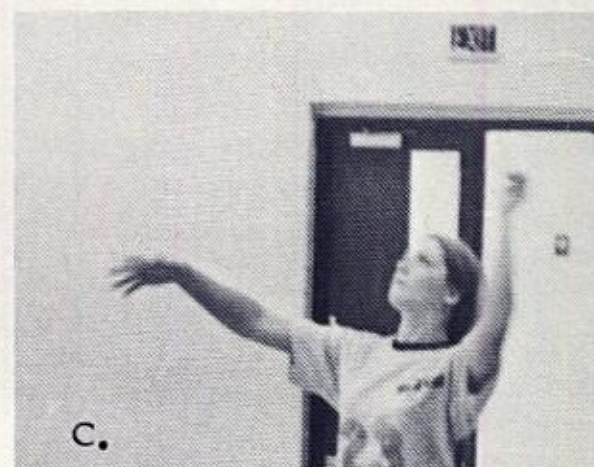

Although the volleyball record was only 1-7, the girls played well. Janice Castanien led the way with 40 points and Marsha Barnes had 20 points. The Reserves had a better record with a 3-4 mark. The top scorers for the Reserves were Lynn Sipe with 30 and Judy Lyons with 25. Everyone played well.

Girls Finish and in Tourney

This year's girls' team had an excellent chance to win the tournament, but they were narrowly beaten by Col. Crawford. The winning league team this year was captained by Donna Clark and had members, M. Leuthold, B. Bardon, K. Kuenzli, and C. Kepler.

A: Coke and relaxation make Kim Eppley happy. B: Superb form is the trick to Donna Clark's soaring scores. C: A pretty blue ball is chosen by Linda Hieber. D: "Those gutter balls are killing Me!" complains Charlene Walcutt.

Basketball Has Many Wins

The Girls' Basketball team did very well this year as they finished with a 3-5 record. Top scorers for the Varsity were Janey Wert with 62 points and Marsha Barnes with 40. The top rebounder was Kay Kissling, who also had the best percentage from the field. For the Reserves Linda Larsen had most honors.

A: Warm-ups prepare Janey Wert for the big game. B: A lay-up by Kay Kissling means two more points for the Royalties. C: The defender is out-manuevered by Marsha Barnes's underhand lay-up.

Varsity Basketball: ROW 1: M. Dickey, mgr.; Coach Terwilliger, B. Cronin, mgr. ROW 2: C. Kissling, M. Barnes, K. Kissling, B. Wilburn, J. Stormer, D. Miller, K. Hornak, L. Sipe, J. Wert, K. Miller.

Reserve Basketball: G. Louis, S. Cramer, R. Ream, W. Walcutt, L. Larsen, K. Bucher, L. Steinhilber, P. Guinther, S. Atkins.

A: Sophomore Linda Rule can really "honk." B: "A Portrait in Tenseness" by Linda Larsen. C: For a little squirt, Janey Wert can run well.

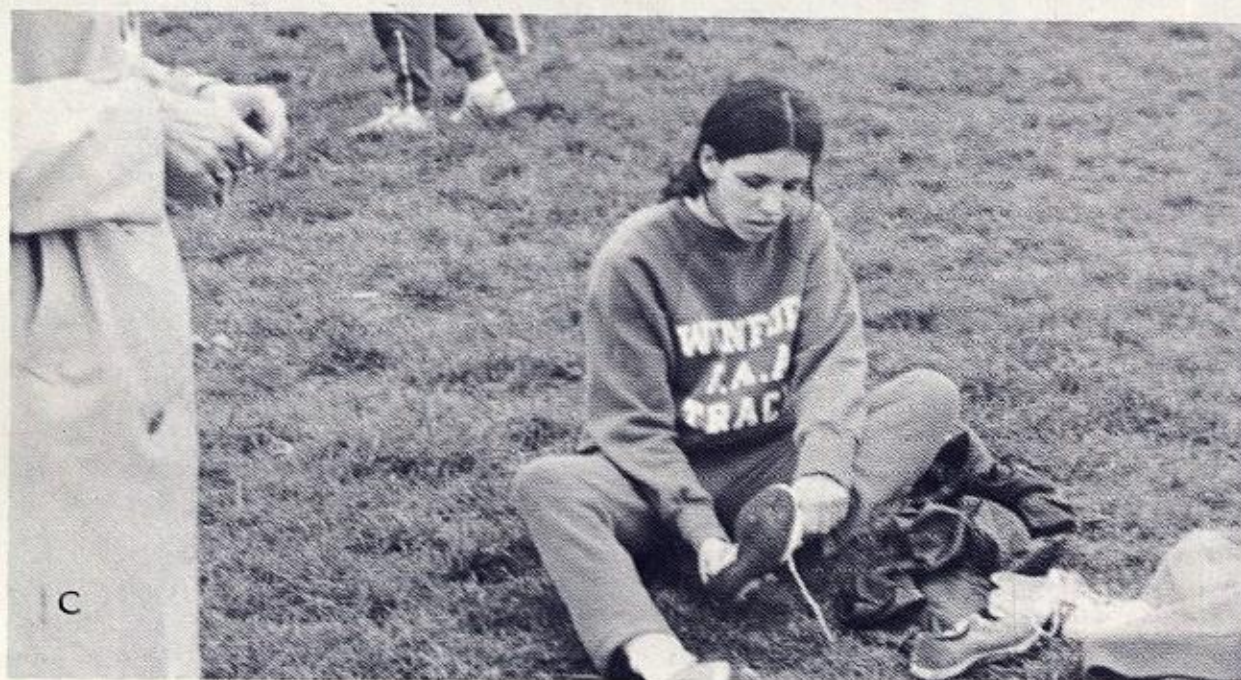

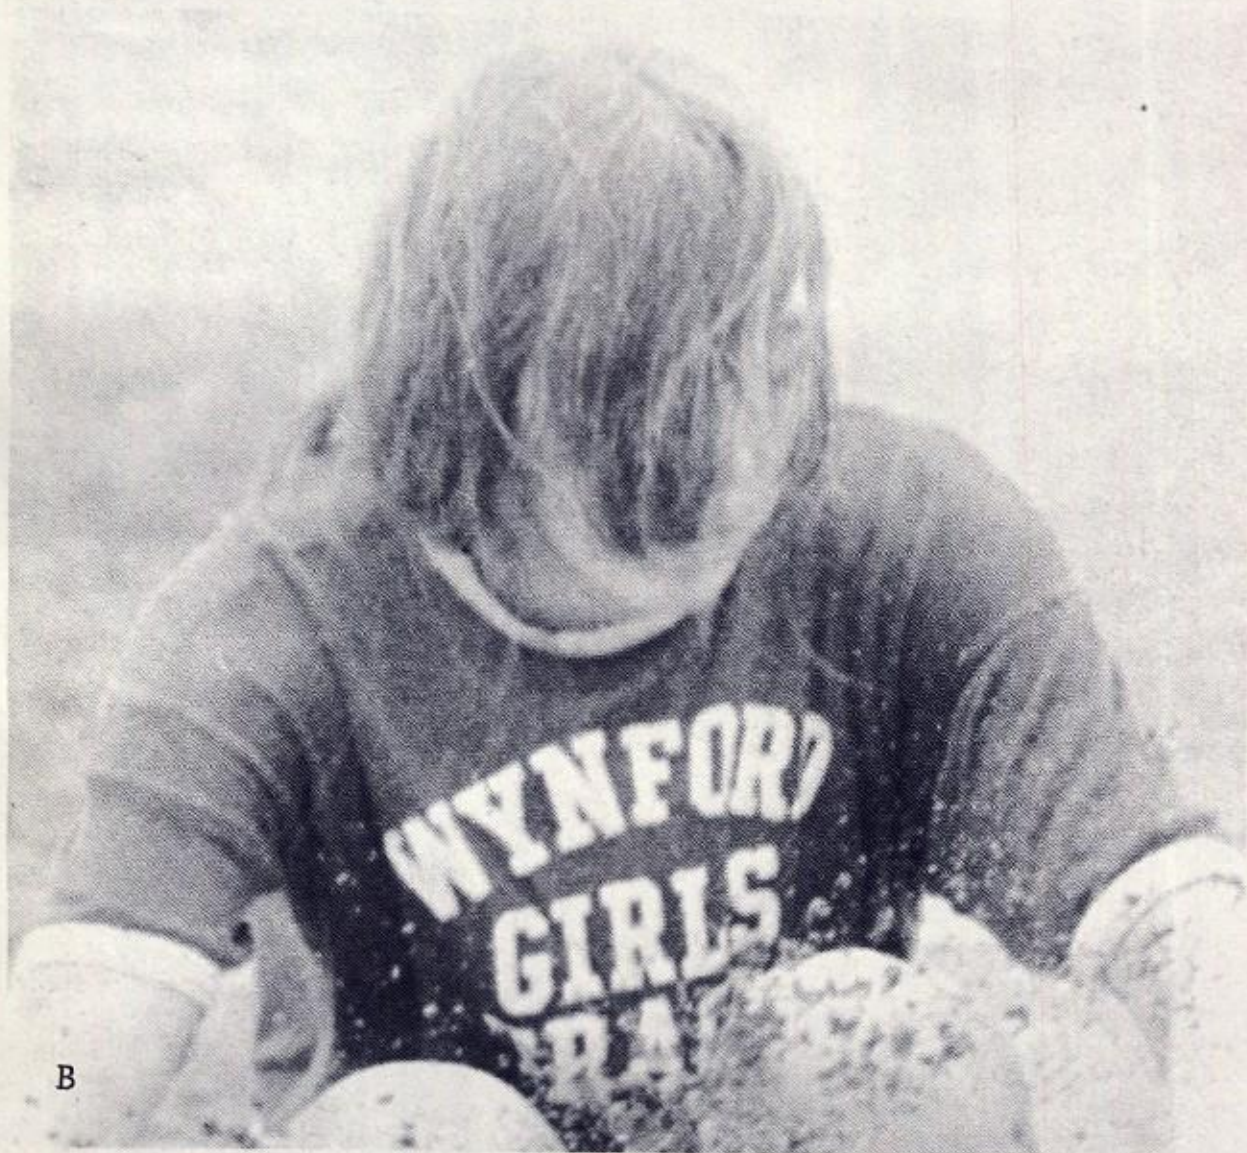

Girls Have Outstanding Year; Three Team Trophies Are Won

This year's girls' track team proved outstanding as they won every championship trophy available to them. They won the Bucyrus Relays, Ridgedale Invitational, and Crawford County Meets. Losing only one dual meet to Galion, they came up with many superb performances all year long. Strong in every event, the girls were led by seniors Becky Bardon and Janet Walton. Coached by Mrs. Terwilliger, she proved a guiding force behind their success.

Girls' Track: ROW 1: C. Miller, M. Kinsey, C. Taylor, M. Durigg, J. Walton, M. Barnes, Mrs. Terwilliger, coach; M. Leuthold, mgr.; B. Bardon, J. Castanien, E. Gerhart, J. Bender, K. Miller, J. Gervais. ROW 2: D. Tschanen, D. Barnes, D. Ritzler, J. Smith, K. Hornak, L. Lohr, L. Rule, K. Miller, L. Beck, J. Wert, J. Stormer, D. Miller, L. Lohr, B. Wilburn, L. Larsen, M. Dickey, C. Rothhaar, P. Ross. ROW 3: P. Sherman, S. Gerber, mgrs.; B. Armbruster, S. Short, K. Kissling, T. Whitmeyer, C. Lloyd, J. Matthews, W. Walcutt, E. Foght, J. Hieber, D. Hieber, R. Ream, P. Guinther, P. Leitz, K. Bucher, L. Steinhilber, mgr.; J. Borgard, mgr.; G. Louis, mgr.

A: "Get ready for practice, girls."
 B: Sand in the fingernails for Becky Wilburn.
 C: "My feet are killing me," agonizes Becky Bardon.
 D: Good form in the high jump is applied by Diane Miller.
 E: The face of Kay Kissling shows the pain of the mile run.
